TEIGE CANTEY

The name Cantey (O'Cantey, Cantee, Kantee, O'Canley, Canley, etc.) is Irish. The given name of Teige (Teague, etc.) is Celtic, meaning poet.

In the parish register of Holy Trinity (Christ Church), Cork, Ireland, the names of three children of Teige and Elizabeth "Canley" and "Causn" were found.[1] Few people of this time could read or write. Those who could, spelled as they chose. There was no standard way of spelling anything. Additional problems aris when modern transcribers decipher old and faded script. If these records in Cork are for Teige and Elizabeth, the first known ancestors of the South Carolina Cant family, then this is a real "find" for anyone interested in tracing the family in Ireland.

At some time before 6-15-1678, when he received land in South Carolina, Teige Cantey was on the Caribbean island of Barbados.[2] There were other "Canteys" on Barbados. One Teague O'Canley, planter of St. Andrew's Parish, Barbados, signed his Will with an X on 5-21-1662, proved 5-11-1671: wife Helen as Executrix, friend Edmond Reynolds and Phillip Hacket as Executors in trust; sons George, Dennis and Cornelius; daughters Helen and Margaret; mentioned land in partnership with Reynol Kellsall; witnessed by Henry Hunt and Jno. Somerhaus. The Will of Dennis O'Cantey was signed 12-17-1684, proved 12-11-1685: of St. Andrews, names brother Cornelius, kinswoman Margaret, wife of George Marleton. The Will of Cornelius O'Cantey of St. Andrews was signed 12-14-1685, proved 1-15-1686: intended wife Katharine Lorkan kinswoman Mary wife of Thomas Davis, Margaret wife of George Marloron. Josiah O'Cauley, Epaphroditus Southwood and Lt. Henry Roberts were witnesses to the Will of Sampson Humphrey of St. James Parish signed 11-24-1685, proved 9-7-1686. The Will of Darby Cantey, stiller of St. James Parish was signed 7-15-1687, proved 8-17-1687 naming wife Margaret, and a Goddaughter Sarah Murphey, daughter of Morris Murphey deceased and his wife the now wife of John Kerrin or Kemin of St. Michael's Parish.[3] Mrs. Helen Cantey had 20 acres of land and 7 negroes in St. George's Parish on 6-3-168_.[4] Teig Carty and Eleanor Dauly were married Christ Church Parish 8-28-1662. Also married in Christ Church Parish, Barbados on 9-24-1662: Juliana Cartey and William Harrold.[5] On the 10-12-1715 Census of Barbados: Cornelius Cartey in All Saints' Parish was age 40, wife age 24, 1 son aged 5, son aged 1, daughter aged 9. Also in All Saint's was Charles Cartey aged 28 years; his wife aged 18 years and no children.[6] One Dennis Canting came to the Carolina colony from Barbados on the ship "Mary" in March of 1678.[7] Nothing more found on Dennis Canting.

The relationship, if any, of Teige Cantey, the ancestor of these papers, to these Canteys of Barbados unfortunately is not known.

Teige Cantey did not come to South Carolina until sometime before 6-15-1678 the date he had an order to layout 550 acres of land as "one of the settlers of this Province"[9]. It is not known if Teige ever took actual possession of the lar because his son George on 7-6-1695, some seventeen years later, had a warrant for 650 acres of land for the arrival rights of Teige Cantey, Elizabeth Cantey, Prissilla Sullivan, Elizabeth Hayes and Maria, Nany and Jack slaves.[10] Teige's negro woman Marea and her son Jack were given to son William Cantey in the Will of Teige Cantey.[11] On 9-20-1678, just three months after the order for land, Tei Cantey made his Will.[12]

The Will and inventory of Teige Cantey reveals much. Cattle was probably still scarse in the new colony, hence the importance of the much-mentioned black cow purchased of Capt. Blacklidge. Though not on a grand scale, the household articles reveal that Teige and Elizabeth were accustomed to living with a certain degree of grace. Table linens, a cover for the table when not in use and complete furnishings for the bed including curtains and a valance used on a tester bedstead are symbols of a solid, upper middle class family of the period. They had more than a sufficiency of pewter and spoons, and since forks were practically unheard of at this date, they were able to set a very satisfying table. Teige had left the bulk of his worth in safe Barbados when he left for the new colony in S.C. The age of the slave child at 2 years assures us that Teige and Elizabeth had been in S. C. only a short time before his death. Arrival rights for the child was claimed by Teige's son George as has been given. Jack was not born in S. C. or there would have been no arrival rights for him. The complete absence of any furniture whatsoever in the inventory confirms that they had not been in S.C. long enough to make or obtain any. Most of all of the household goods could have been brought with them from Barbados in the two chests with locks and keys that were inventoried. Certainly, the amount of wine and rum given in the funeral expenses tell us that Elizabeth held a genuine Irish Wake.

The following has been found for those, other than the family, that are mentioned in Teige's Will and inventory. Joseph Oldys was the Deputy Secretary of the Province.[14] His daughter Arabella married Teige Cantey's grandson William Cantey as will be shown. As a direct line ancestor, Joseph Oldys'records follow these Cantey papers. Capt. Solomon Blacklidge was master of the Frigate "James" out of London; he died before 1679.[15] Mrs. Joan Carver with daughter Margaret Sullivan and 1 slave arrived in the province in 1672, origin unknown.[16] She will be mentioned later in these papers. Ralph Marshal was a gentleman of the Grand Council and Lord Proprietor's Deputy; born 1647; married Mary Stock; came on the first ship "Carolina" in 1670.[16] Dr. Bodett may be Peter Bodit, a Freeman; had a wife Frances; he died before 2-1-1687.[17] Thomas Midwinter, cooper and wine cooper; had a wife and son; arrived before 9-5-1674; origin unknown; died before 3-26-1683.[18] All that is known of John Stock and John Donnoho is that they were

Freemen.[19]

The Canteys, the people mentioned above and the others who braved the new land with them are the founding fathers and mothers of the great state of South Carolina.

Nothing more has been found for Elizabeth Cantey, wife of Teige after the proving of the Will.

The children of Teige Cantey, not in order of birth but for convenience in outlining:

1. TEIGE CANTEY is thought to be a child of Teige Cantey. He does not appear on any list of first settlers compiled by modern writers as he is confused with the elder Teige, his father. At sometime he arrived in South Carolina, and on 8-28-1672, he had an order to have land measured out - 24 acres southward of the lands laid out for George Cantey, James "Donaghoe" and Phillip Comerton.[20] On 9-5-1674, Mrs. Joan Carver had an order to have 100 acres of land laid out, bought by her of Teague Cantey, deceased.[21] From these two land records, it can be stated that Teige Cantey died between 8-28-1672 and 9-5-1674. The 100 acres was a grant to an unmarried man without slaves. Therefore, Teige died unmarried and left no children. Had he left issue, they would have been named in the Will of Teige Sr.

2. ELIZABETH CANTEY. "Elizabeth, daughter of Tige Causn and Elizabeth" was Baptized on 2-10-1660/61 at Holy Trinity (Christ Church), Cork, Ireland.[22] No daughter Elizabeth was mentioned in the Will of Teige Cantey. If the records in Cork, Ireland are for Teige and Elizabeth who came to S.C., then the daughter Elizabeth died previous to the Will with no issue.

3. MARY CANTEY was called Mary Smericke in the Will of her father Teige; also mentioned was her son Francis Smericke under 21 years. According to the language of the Will of her father concerning the unborn calf she was to inherit, it would seem that she was either in S. C. or expected to be in S. C. However, no records of any kind have been found in S. C. or Barbados for the surname Smericke. The nearest possible name found in S. C. in these early times was Smethwick. On the list of earliest settlers of S. C. are Daniel Smethwick and Robert Smethwick, who lived on Oyster Point.[23] Names of wives or children are not known for either man, but the records of these earliest times are very sketchy.

4. CATHERINE CANTEY was called Catheranie Man.. in the Will of her father Teige. Since she was to receive one of the future calves, it appears that she also was either in S. C. or expected in S. C. The Xeroxed copy of the original recorded Will of Teige Cantey in possession of the writers shows a tear in the paper by her name. Just exactly how long the Will has been torn is not known, but ca. 75 years ago, her married name was read as "Manely".[24] No record of Manely was found in S. C. records or on Barbados by the writers. On the list of earliest settlers of S.C. are John Manley and Jno. Mauley, a tailor.[25] No wives are listed for either. These two may be one and the same man, as the old script "u" and "n" are practically alike. This John Manley is an excellent candidate for the husband of Catherine Cantey.

5. WILLIAM CANTEY. Holy Trinity Register, Cork, Ireland: "William, son of Tiege and Elizabeth Cauly" was born 8-19-1657, Baptized 8-20-1657.[26] The Will of Teige Cantey dated 9-20-1678 states:[27]

> ... Item I give and bequeath unto my Son William Cantey after the decease of my Said wife one hundred Acres of Land my Negrowoman Marea and her Negro boy Jacke one pewter dish one pewter plate and one pewter porringer and .. Blacke Cowe which I bought of Cap^t Blacklidge w^th the Increase thereof Except before Excepted/ But if in case my Said Son William shall die before my Said wife and without any Children lawfully begotten then what I have before bequeathed to him shall be equally divided amongst my Surviveinge Children ...

From this language, William is of age, has no children and is probably unmarried. If he is the same William Baptized in Cork, then the day that his father signed his Will, William was 21 years, 1 month and 1 day old. It is not known exactly where William was at this time or when he came to S. C. He was not listed with Teige and Elizabeth for the arrival rights.[28]

The first record found for William in South Carolina was dated 6-14-1679 at Charles Towne: "measure and lay out unto William Cantey, one of the free persons of this Province, 100 acres of land".[29] This was right after the death of his father whose Will left him 100 acres of land. Next, William received a grant on the Ashley River on 4-5-1682.[30]

On 3-31-1693, William Cantey, Francis Turgis, George Cantey, Richard Varner and Gabriel Glaze were named appraisers of the estate of Job Bishop.[31]

It is not known if William was married twice or whether he married later in life than was the norm at that time. If he did have an earlier marriage, the first wife died and there were no surviving children of that marriage.[32] It is known that William married Jane Baker, daughter of Richard and Elizabeth Baker.[33] This marriage took place sometime between 11-23-1694, when Richard Baker arrived in S. C. with his wife and 5 children,[34] and 1-28-1698/9 when Richard Baker signed his Will.[35]

On 6-1-1695, William Cantey received a grant for 1,170 acres in Berkeley County.[36] He was a member of the Assembly for Berkeley County in the years 1696, 1697 and 1704.[37]

On 1-2-1696/7, William Cantey, Elizabeth Turgis and Dame Rebecca Axtell made bond to Governor Blake for Elizabeth Turgis to administer the estate of Francis Turgis.[38] On 2-11-1696/7, the inventory of Francis Turgis was returned. Appraiser were Gabriel Glaze, William Cantey and Thomas Butler; the value of the estate set at 949 pounds 3 shillings.[39]

South Carolina was invaded by a force composed of French and Spanish troops in September of 1706. William Cantey commanded a company, which with Capt. Fenwick defeated and routed them at Hobcaw in Christ Church Parish.[40]

William died circa 1715. In a petition dated 7-15-1724, Jane Cantey, relict and widow, stated that William Cantey was deceased about 9 years ago; James Cantey, eldest son of William Cantey, not of age at his father's death, has since attained 21 years and makes application for administration.[41]

6.*GEORGE CANTEY was the progenitor of the following generations of Canteys, who in time would marry into the Neilson and Brunson families of S.C. The language of Teige Cantey's Will and other findings definitely establishes that George was the eldest surviving son of Teige Cantey at the time of the Will.

The parish register of Holy Trinity (Christ Church), Cork, Ireland: "George, son of Teige Cauly and Elizabeth" - unfortunately, no dates.[42] George was born sometime between 2-10-1649 and 2-10-1650 because he witnessed the Will of William Snipes on 2-10-1677, giving his age as 27 years.[43]

George Cantey came to South Carolina from the Barbados aboard the ship "Carolina" in early 1671.[44] This was the third ship to come to the permanent colony. George's name appears as a "freeholder" on 3-22-1671.[45]

George's wife was named Martha.[46] Martha's maiden surname has not been found. Circumstantial evidence points to the probability that George and Martha were married on Barbados since their son John was the third male child born in South Carolina.[47]

A plat of the original settlement was made in July and August of 1671, and sent to England on the ship "The Blessing" on 9-1-1671. This plat shows that George Cantey, Phillip Comerton and James Donahoe had lots of 10 acres each, adjoining each other, on the west bank of the Ashley River.[48]

The first settlement was a very precarious one with danger on all sides. Indians, pirates, the French and Spanish made attack eminent from both land and sea. This made defence a top priority. Therefore, in the Grand Council session of 6-18-1672, the plan for defence was defined. In this plan, George Cantey, who resided at the Ickersby (also as "Accabee") plantation, should provide two men to go to Amos Jefford's upper plantation and guard that passage.[49]

The original settlement was on the southwest side of the Ashley River at a place that is called today "Charles Town Landing" on the Ashley River Road. For some reason, the town was moved from Charles Town Landing to Oyster Point. Oyster Point is the site of the present city of Charleston. More precisely, it is the site of the oldest part of the present city of Charleston behind the Battery area at the confluence of the Ashley and Cooper Rivers.

On 6-21-1671, George Cantey and Ralph Marshall witnessed that William Flaggs of Charles Towne indentured himself to Mr. James Needham of Charles Towne.[50]

At Charles Town on 7-25-1674, it was ordered to lay out 160 acres for George Cantey and his wife Martha.[51]

Teige Cantey, George's father, came to South Carolina sometime before 6-15-1678 when land was ordered to be laid out for him.[52] It is not known if there was a connection, but George received papers ordering the measuring and laying out of a 10 acre lot at Oyster Point on 6-3-1678.[53]

George Cantey inherited in the Will of his father Teige Cantey on 9-20-1678:[54]

> Item I give and bequeath unto my Son George Cantey after the death of my Said wife all the remainînge part of my Estate booth reall and personall

On 12-16-1681, a public notice was given which stated that nothing was to be done to the estate of Thomas "Piffs", late of this province deceased, until notice was given to George Cantey, principal creditor.[55]

George Cantey was a jury member between 4-11-1692 and 9-26-1692.[56]

At the meeting of the Grand Council of 7-15-1692:[57]

> This day George Cantey, Executor of the last will and testament of Joseph Oldys, gentleman deceased, made his appearance at this court and produced his account of deb..; and creditor concerning the said estate of the said Joseph Oldyes and charged himself by two inventories amounting to eighty four pounds four shillings and eleaven pence and discharged himselfe by severall payments to the sum of eighty three pounds and fourteen shillings as by the said account filed in the Secretary's office appeares w accounts are allow'd off, to discharge him for soe much ....

The relationship, if any, of Joseph Oldys to George Cantey is not known. Since Joseph Oldys had children, naming George Cantey as Executor was a grave responsibility in the still young colony. As it also is not known whether Joseph's wife was alive, speculation mounts as to whether George Cantey acted also as guardian for the Oldys children. Joseph's daughter Arabella Oldys married George's son William Cantey as will be shown later in these papers.

On 3-31-1693, George was one of the appraisers of the estate of Job Bishop.[58]

A warrant for land was issued to George Cantey for 100 acres on the north side of the Ashley River, bounding North - lands of said Cantey, South - James Plack, West and East - lands not laid out; dated 9-13-1695; not granted until 10-28-1696.[59]

George Cantey and James Boswood executed a bond to Governor Moore for Boswood's proper guardianship of Mary Morgan, daughter of John Morgan; dated on 1-2-1701/2 and witnessed by Edward Mosely.[60] James Boswood was George's son in law as will be shown.

George Cantey bought a plantation of 560 acres from the Lords Proprietors for 5 pounds and 4 shillings. The plat was dated 7-6-1702; granted 6-18-1702.[61] This land was evidently in two pieces. One piece was 260 acres in Berkeley Co. on the north side of the Ashley River bounded: North-Thomas Elmes, East-said Cantey, South-James Bunaheer, West-Thomas Butler and lands not yet laid out. The deed for this land was examined and delivered to Josiah Cantey on 2-18-1733/4.[62] Josiah was George's grandson. The other 300 odd acres was probably that which George and wife Martha sold to James Boswood for 5 shillings dated September 1708.[63]

George received an extremely large grant of land, 1,000 acres, on the north side of the Ashley River in Berkeley County on 2-8-1704/5.[64]

George Cantey was elected and served as a member of the Commons House of Assembly for Berkeley County in 1703 and 1704.[65] He served as the assessor on the north side of the Ashley River in 1703.[66]

Pursuant to the Church Act, the parishioners of St. James' Parish, Goose Creek (Anglican) met on Easter Mondy 4-14-1707, and elected among others George Cantey as a Vestryman.[67]

In September of 1708, George Cantey made the following land transaction which has greatly helped in the sorting out of the different Canteys.[68]

> George Cantey and wife Martha to James Boswood, son-in-law, all of Berkeley County: 310 acres bounding: Northward-said George Cantey, Southward-"my son Will Cantey", Eastward-lands of James Donohoe, James Hawkes and John Cantey, to the EAstward-Thomas Barker, dec'd, Westward-lands of Capt. William Cantey. Dated ....September 1708. Signed Martha X Cantey, George Cantey. Witnessed by William Cantey, Thos. Elmes, John Ward and William Allin. Memorandum: 12 Sept. 1708, George Cantey swore to within and did deliver to James Boswood said property in the presence of us: William Cantey Jr., Thomas Elmes, John Ward and William Allin.

The above is the last record found for Martha, but it is not known when she died. Although not proven, it is highly probable that George was married only once as Martha's name appeared on documents on 7-25-1674 and September 1708.

The last record found for George Cantey was a Deed of Gift as George Cantey Sr. to his granddaughter Martha Ladson of one negro girl slave dated 10-31-1716.[69]

No Will or estate papers for George Cantey have been found. Nothing has been found that lists the children of George and Martha. Therefore, their children must be compiled from individual records. This leaves open the option of overlooking some children, but this option is more probable with daughters than sons.[70]

The children of George and Martha Cantey:

1) JOHN CANTEY, oldest child of George and Martha, was probably born in 1671, because he was the third male child born in S.C. as has been already told, and because his grandson Charles Cantey was of age on 5-2-1733 as will be shown.

The Will of his grandfather Teige Cantey on 9-20-1678:[71]

Item I give to my Grandchild John Cantey ffive pounds ster^l^ to be paid him by my son George Cantey his ffather at the Age of one and twenty years

On 12-5-1696, John Cantey bought 400 acres of land from the Proprietors;[72] situated on the north side of the Ashley River in Berkeley County, bounded: North-James Boswood, Southwest-Francis Turgis, dec'd, other sides vacant.[73]

A Memorial dated 10-16-1703, John Cantey of Berkeley County for 5 pounds from James Boswood of the same county sold 10 acres.[74] John Cantey had a warrant for 300 acres southwest of William Baker on 4-20-1703.[75]

John Cantey was elected to the Commons House of Assembly from Berkeley County on 2-13-1705/06.[76]

Ca. 1710, a confusion factor begins between "John Cantey" and "Capt. John Cantey". It appears, but has not been conclusively proven, that the records for "John Cantey" are for the son of George and Martha, and that the records for "Capt. John Cantey" are for the son of John Cantey.

It is not known exactly when John Cantey married the first time, but probably ca. 1691 and to the sister of Joseph Childs. The Will of Joseph Childs dated 5-12-1715 named "brother John Cantey" as Executor.[77] John's first wife was either dead at the time of Joseph Childs' Will or very shortly after, for between 6-7-1717 and 11-28-1717 John Cantey married Ann Rowsham, the widow of William Rowsham Jr.[78]

John Cantey and his wife Ann had two children, Charles born in August 1718, and Sarah born Wednesday 3-29-1720.[79] This Charles born in 1718 has been confused with another Charles Cantey, grandson of John Cantey and son of Capt. John Cantey. Charles Cantey, grandson of John Cantey, made a Memorial dated 5-2-1733.[80](He had to have been at least 21 years of age, therefore born on or before 5-2-1712) It was the grandson Charles Cantey who made a land transaction with the surviving children of John Cantey on 10-2-1736.[81] Therefore, there are two Charles Cantey lines descending from John Cantey, whereas previous Cantey genealogies have shown only one.[82]

John Cantey made his Will as John Cantey Sr. on 5-19-1724[83], but the Will no longer exists. He was dead before 4-9-1725 when the Will of Joseph Child was proved.[84] Therefore, John died between 5-19-1724 and 4-9-1725.

2) SENDINIAH CANTEY was a daughter of George and Martha Cantey.[85] She married James Boswood.[86] Samuel Boswood was the only person with the surname Boswood who could possibly have been James' father.

Samuel Boswood was born 1643-1644.[87] Without his wife and children, he came to S. C. as a servant to Capt. Gray on the first ship.[88] In June of 1671, Samuel received land for his wife Mary and daughters Elizabeth and Margarett.[89] Evidently, James was born in S.C. after June of 1671. The date of marriage of James Boswood and Sendiniah Canty is not known, but it was before September 1708 when George and Martha Cantey made of Deed of Gift of a plantation of 300 acres in Berkeley County to their son-in-law James Boswood.[90]

James Boswood Sr. was buried 2-25-1730/1, Sendiniah Boswood died 12-9-1740 according to the parish register of St. Andrew's Church.[91]

3) ELIZABETH CANTEY, daughter of George and Martha Cantey. Elizabeth Cantey, daughter of George Cantey was granted a marriage license to marry Thomas Elmes on 9-2-1692.[92]

Thomas Elmes was born before 11-15-1671 as he was a Witness to the Will of Job Bishop 11-15-1692.[93] Thomas Elmes died between 1-24-1723/4 when he signed his Will and 1-15-1724/5 when his Will was proved. An abstract follows:[94]

> Thomas Elmes of Berkeley County: Wife Elizabeth, residency on plantation during her widowhood. Sons: eldest Thomas and Samuel, both under 21 years and unmarried, all my land. Daughters: Martha Ladson, Mary Green, Margaret Smith and Sarah Elmes, latter under 16 years. Mentioned Madam Sarah Barker. Executors: wife, sons-in-law William Ladson and Emanuel Smith, brother-in-law James Boswood. Witnessed by John Ladson, Joseph Barton his mark and John Lupton.

As can be seen in the above, Elizabeth was still alive at the signing of the Will on 1-24-1723/4. Nothing else has been found for her.

4)*WILLIAM CANTEY, son of George and Martha Cantey,[95] was the progenitor of the next generation. He was born after his brother John in 1671 and before 1-28-1676/7.[96] By 11-3-1703, William was married to Arabella Oldys, daughter of Joseph Oldys, dec'd:[97]

> .... Whereas the said Joseph Oldys by his last will and Testament did give & bequeath ye said plantation of to (sic) hundred & Seventy Acres in Equall parts to his son Joseph Oldys and His three Daughters Arabella Elizabeth & Margarett Oldys .... one fourth part or proportion of ye said Land did by Lott fall to Arabella now wife of William Cantey Junr and two fourth parts to more of the said Land being the Portion by Lott of Elizabeth & Margaret Oldis were by them conveyed to ye said William Cantey Junr..... Dated at Charles Town ye third day of November anno Domini 1703

William and Arabella sold the above land:[98]

> We William Cantey, Junyor of Berkley County, yeoman, and Arabela my wife for & consideration £60 by Andrew Ruse of sd county, yeoman, a Plantation containing 202 acres & a half English measure .. on the North Side of Ashley River .....

William was granted 1,170 acres of land on the Ashley River on 7-14-1703.[99]

William Cantey was an Indian Trader. He made his bond for his license on 3-22-1710/11.[100]

He died in 1729. On 8-26-1729:[101]

> Landgrave Thomas Smith & wife Mary to Josiah Cantey ... Whereas William Cantey, late of Craven County, planter, father of the said Josiah Cantey by indenture 12 April 1713 did convey to said Thomas Smith all the said William Cantey's plantation containing 360 acres and granted to him by his father George Cantey in Berkeley County, B & B as per plan annexed to deed of gift. Whereas provision for the redemption became forfeited unto the said Landgrave Thomas Smith. Now Landgrave Thomas Smith conveys to Josiah Cantey his claim on said 360 acres.

10-16-1729, Letters of Administration of William Cantey were granted to Capt. Tobias Fitch and William Cattle by the Honorable Arthur Middleton, Esq. President. "To Capt. Tobias Fitch and Mr. William Cattle whereas William Cantey late of Craven County, dec'd, lately died intestate ..."[102] Josiah Cantey, William's son, was of age and would have been the most logical person to serve as Administrator of his father's estate. Just exactly why Tobias Fitch and William Cattle served is not known. There are at least two possible explanations. Tobias Fitch was also an Indian Trader. Perhaps Fitch and Cattle were business associates of William Cantey. Or, perhaps William was in debt to these two men, although generally "greatest creditors" was added to the letters of administration in such cases. All is conjecture.

No clue has been found as to when Arabella Oldys Cantey died. William died intestate, and estate papers with distribution to heirs have not surfaced. Therefore, their children must be compiled from their individual records. The children of William and Arabella Cantey, not necessarily in order of birth:

1/ *JOSIAH CANTEY was the oldest living son of William and Arabella Cantey and of age in the 1729 conveyance above. This establishes his birth at before 8-26-1708. Remembering that William and Arabella had been married by 11-3-1703, it is possible that Josiah was well over 21 years of age in the above conveyance with Landgrave Smith, or that Josiah had an older brother who died, or he had at least one older sister. Josiah was married at least twice.

St. Andrew's Parish Register: Josiah Cantey and Elizabeth Boswood spinster were married 10-3-1731.[103] Not proven, but it is most likely that Elizabeth was the daughter of James and Sendiniah Cantey Boswood, making Josiah and Elizabeth first cousins. Josiah and Elizabeth had 3 children Baptized at St. Andrew's: William on 11-14-1732; Anne on 7-31-1734; George on 10-2-1736. Evidently Elizabeth died at the birth of the son George as she was buried on 10-2-1736.[104] The child George evidently died at an early age as nothing more has been found for him.

After the death of his wife, Josiah moved to Prince Frederick Parish where he was a juror in 1737 and in 1744.[105] He received a grant for 400 acres in Craven County on 3-6-1750.[106] This land he sold to Barbara Harrison on 10-1-1770.[107] On 2-21-1752, Josiah Cantey and wife Susanna sold 287½ acres in St. Andrew's Parish.[108] This is the only time that his wife Susanna's name has been found. Whether she was his 2nd or 3rd wife, etc. is not known.

Josiah was Godfather at the Baptism of his nephew Ezekiah Cantey Richardson, son of Richard and Mary Cantey Richardson on 10-3-1758.[109]

7-2-1766, Josiah Cantey was appointed Tax Commissioner for St. Mark's Parish.[110]

Josiah Cantey died sometime between the signing of his Will on 10-8-1773 and its proving on 12-17-1773:[111]

> Josiah Cantey of St. Marks Parish, Craven County - Son William, all my lands; daughters Elizabeth Brunson, Martha Richbourgh, Comfort Green, Susanna Dennis, Rebecca Gale, Ann and Esther; son William to have care of daughters Ann and Esther; Executors son William and Richard Richardson Esq.; Witnessed by Brinkley Corbett, Jas. Noble and Dorothy Corbett her mark.

2/ DAUGHTER of William and Arabella Oldys Cantey who married Richard Middleton. Survey 3-14-1734/5, Grant 12-18-1736 to Mr. Richard Middleton for tract of land containing 150 acres in Craven County on Strawberry Hill in the Township or near Williamsburg on the South side of Black River, butting and bounding on all sides on vacant land not yet laid out.[112] Richard Middleton was granted Lot #99 in Williamsburg in 1735.[113] On Friday, 12-10-1736, Robert Finley, Crofton Kerwin and Richard Middleton, residents of Williamsburg, petitioned the colonial Council to clear Black River and make it navigable.[114] In 1737 Richard Middleton was a Petit Juror in Prince Frederick Parish, and again in 1744.[115] In 1745, Richard Middleton, owning 11 slaves, was the largest slaveholder in Williamsburg.[116]

The Will of Richard Middleton was signed with X on 2-19-1749/50, proved 11-29-1750: Wife (not named); sons John and Richard, residue of estate at death of wife; Executors: William and John Cantey; Witnesses: Robert Stewart and Joseph X Smith.[117] On 12-31-1750, William Cantey qualified as Executor of the estate of Richard Middleton, deceased.[118]

11-1-1758, John Midleton to William Cantey and James Kelley, stock of cattle, horses, mares, etc.; Witnessed by Patrick Fitzpatrick and William Boeykin.[119] This is likely the son named in the above Will. The other son Richard Middleton was likely he whose estate was appraised on 12-27-1784 at £1,616.12.9 including 24 slaves; Administrators were Jane Middleton, George Evans and Arabella Evans.[120]

3/ MARY CANTEY, daughter of William and Arabella Oldys Cantey, married Richard Richardson. Prince Frederick Parish Register: Richard Richardson and Mary Cantey married 10-11-1736.[121] Daughters of the American Revolution: Mary Cantey Richardson was born 1722, died 1767;[122] Richard Richardson was born 1704-5, died September 1780, married 1st Mary Cantey, 2nd Dorothy Sinkler.[123] If the DAR are correct, Mary was 14 years of age and Richard was 31 at their marriage.

To any genealogical researcher or student of S.C. up-country history, it is obvious that Richard Richardson was a leader - active in church, civic and military affairs of that area. Though he was in the seventies, he continued this leadership into the American Revolutionary War.

"The Minute Book of John Rutledge, President of South Carolina after it was made a republic, shows on page 97 the following entry: 'Commission to Richard Richardson, Esq. as Brigadier General, to take rank as such from the 26th of October last - 6th December 1778.' He continued as a Brigadier General in the Revolutionary War until his death, which took place before the war closed."[124]

Six weeks after the death of General Richardson, Lord Cornwallis' henchman Col. Banastre Tarlton had his troops dig up the corpse of the General, in order that he might "look upon the face of such a brave man". Actually, he was punishing the Richardsons for their part in the war. Tarlton plundered the home, killed their animals, burned their grain. Tarlton continued burning and killing. In his report to Cornwallis, he said: "I returned on my steps & laid the Houses and Plantations of violent rebels waste about Richardson's and Jack's Creek. The Country seems now convinced of the error of Insurrection. ...." [125] How wrong he was! The Richardsons and their kin, the Canteys, Neilsons and Brunsons, along with the other patriots of the little state of South Carolina would not rest until he and the British were driven out. No wonder that at the surrender, the British played "The World Turned Upside Down".

The estate of Richard Richardson was divided by the Court of Equity in Camden as follows: (By Mary Cantey) Col. Richard Richardson, Edward Richardson, Susannah wife of Capt. Lawrence Manning, Rebecca wife of John Singleton, a deceased daughter Martha wife of Archibald McDonald; (by Dorothy Sinkler) James Burchill Richardson, John Peter Richardson, Charles Richardson and Thomas Richardson who died in his minority.[126] On the 1788 Tax List for Clarendon, the estate of General Richardson was shown with 91 slaves and 5,105 acres; his widow Dorothy Richardson with 40 slaves, 2 wheels (carriages) and a house in Charleston.[127]

4/ JOHN CANTEY was apparently the youngest surviving son of William and Arabella Oldys Cantey. His year of birth is not known, but it was before 1723 as he was of age 1743-1744.[128]

John was married before 1749. On 12-2-1753, John and Mary Cantey had two daughters Baptized: Mary aged 4 years and Sarah aged 11 months.[129] Mary, as daughter of Capt. John Cantey of Camden, married Ely Kershaw on 11-30-1769.[130] Sarah married John Chesnut on 6-15-1770.[131] It is for the Kershaw family that present day Kershaw County, S.C. was named. The Chesnuts have been immortalized by the epic Mary Chesnut's Civil War.[132]

John Cantey's wife is said to have been Mary McGirt, daughter of James McGirt, and she was younger than John by many years.[133] All signs certainly point to Mary being a McGirt, and nothing has been found by the writers to contradict this. She would have to have been much younger than John Cantey as her parents, James McGirt and Priscilla Allen (the widow Davidson or Davisson) were married 10-12-1732.[134] It is the educated guess of the writers that Mary McGirt Cantey's grandmother was Elizabeth Oldys before her marriage to William Allen. Since Elizabeth Oldys and Arabella Oldys, John Cantey's mother, were sisters, John Cantey married his cousin.

Known as Capt. John Cantey of Pine Tree Hill, John lived near the present site of Camden, S.C.[135] In this area lived the families of Milhouse, Wyley and Kershaw. 5-12-1753, Robert Milhouse and wife Elizabeth of Craven Co. to John Cantey of same, 50 acres near Town Creek, part of tract conveyed the same day by James McGirt to Robert Milhouse.[136] 8-13-1754, John Hoskins and wife Sarah to John Cantey 100 acres in Craven Co.; witnessed by Josiah Cantey, William Cantey, Samuel Bacot; proved before Richard Richardson by Josiah and William Cantey on 8-16-1754.[137] 1-25-1764, Samuel Wyley Sr. of St. Mark's for love and affection unto John Cantey of Pine Tree Hill in St. Mark's, 4 acres at Pine Tree Hill; witnessed by Thomas Jones, Ely Kershaw and John Chesnut.[138] 4-22-1765, Joseph Kershaw of St. Mark's Parish for love and affection to John Cantey of Pine Tree Hill, a lot of land at Pine Tree Hill near the south end of John Cantey's dwelling.[139]

Capt. John Cantey served in Lyttleton's campaign against the Cherokees in the winter of 1759-1760.[140] As Capt. John Cantey, he was mentioned in the Appropriation Act on 7-31-1760.[141] Samuel Wyley, Jos. Kershaw and John Cantey were Commissioners for Roads from Nelson's Ferry to Catawbas.[142] 5-28-1767, Capt. John Cantey and Eli Kershaw were Tax Commissioners for the Wateree.[143]

John Cantey died in 1792 on his plantation "Live Easy", a few miles below Camden; letters of administration given to his sons on October 11th of that year.[144] 2-27-1793, appraisement of the estate of John Cantey; Administrators were James and Zachariah Cantey; John Chesnut and Duncan McRae made the bond for the administration.[145]

John Cantey's son-in-law John Chesnut was Paymaster and a Captain in the Revolutionary War.[146] His son James Cantey was also a Captain in the Revolutionary War;[147] and his son Zachariah Cantey is on the certified list of Georgia troops in the Revolutionary War.[148]

5/ WILLIAM CANTEY, son of William and Arabella Oldys Cantey, was born before 11-8-1716 for on 11-8-1737, he received a grant of 150 acres on the north side of the Santee River.[149]

Dr. Joseph Ames, in his compilation of the Cantey family for the South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine, suggested that William Cantey may have married Elizabeth Neilson, daughter of Matthew Neilson and sister of George Neilson.[150] Based on circumstantial evidence, the writers believe this is so. The Will of Matthew Neilson, signed 8-26-1742, named daughters Mary and Elizabeth.[151] The Will of his son George Neilson, signed 9-15-1742, was witnessed by Mary Brunson and Elizabeth Cantey.[152] Extensive research has revealed that in 1742 there were only 6 Cantey males old enough for marriage. The names of the wives at this time of these Canteys, except William, are proven, and none of them was named Elizabeth. By the process of elimination, Elizabeth was the wife of William Cantey.

In 1744 William Cantey was a Petit Juror in Prince Frederick Parish.[153]

William Cantey and his brother John Cantey were named Executors in the Will of their brother-in-law Richard Middleton signed 2-19-1749/50; and on 12-31-1750, William Cantey qualified as the Executor of the estate of Richard Middleton, deceased.[154]

On 8-13-1754, William Cantey, Josiah Cantey and Samuel Bacot were witnessed to the conveyance between John Hoskins and wife and John Cantey.[155]

The 1756 Commissioners for St. Mark's Church were Joseph Cantey Esq., Richard Richardson Esq., William Cantey and John Cantey.[156] This was the time when the new Parish of St. Mark's was being formed from Prince Frederick Parish. In 1757 the commissioners appointed for receiving subscriptions, building the parish church and selling the pews were Richard Richardson, Matthew Neilson, James McGirt, Joseph Cantey, William Cantey, John Cantey and Isaac Brunson.[157] These men were all related by blood and/or marriage.

On 1-14-1755 as William Cantey Sr., his land bound 200 acres of Josiah Cantey on the north side of the Santee River.[158] (This land appears to have been on Jacks Creek.) On 5-9-1757 William had a survey for 150 acres on the north side of the Sandee River, bound on the southwest side by the said river, all other sides vacant land.[159]

11-1-1758, John Middleton conveyed stock of cattle, horses and mares to William Cantey and James Kelley, witnessed by Patrick Fitpatrick and William Boeykin.[160] (John Middleton was William's nephew and James Kelly was William's son-in-law.)

On 4-14-1759, William Cantey made a Memorial for 150 acres on the north side of the Santee River in Craven Co., bound: SW-Santee River, all other sides vacant, granted 10-18-1757; and for 150 acres on the north side of the Santee River in Craven County, all sides vacant, granted 11-8-1737.[161]

The Appropriation Act of 7-31-1760 paid for supplies, etc. for the Cherokee Expedition. The following received compensation:[162]

James McGirt for a steer
William Cantey for a steer
Capt. John Cantey for cattle, bread, four and other provisions
Capt. James McGirt for a steer
Capt. William Cantey for cattle
Richd Middleton for a steer
Josiah Cantey for a steer
William Cantey for a horse

1760 is the last date in which William Cantey, son of William and Arabella Cantey, can be positively identified. As can be seen from the above, by that date there were at least 3 William Canteys of age.

No Will or records of probate have been found for William Cantey that would name his children. Certainly, good candidates for his children would be one of the several men named William Cantey, the Josiah Cantey in the records of the area in S.C. and in Georgia, Arabella Cantey who married first John Scott and then to James Kelley, and Elizabeth Cantey, the wife of David Brunson. However, nothing conclusive has been found that proves them children of William or any other Cantey.

Note: Arrival rights for land could be taken at any time. Did all of these come with Teige and Elizabeth, or is George getting land for two groups of people? Either way there is association between Canteys and the two girls or women. It is thought that this Priscilla Sullivan may be the mother of William Allen who married the daughter of Joseph Oldys. Joseph Oldys had some relationship to Mrs. Joan Carver who was married previously to a Sullivan. George Cantey was the Executor of Joseph Oldys.

William is mentioned in the Axtell account books, so it may have been a business relationship. However, William was in the Assembly at this time, and the Axtells and their kin were very active in the Proprietary Party, so theirs may have been a political relationship.

Note: This was not a Deed of Gift. Token money was exchanged for the land, therefore it was a contract. Charles Cantey - young son of John and Ann Cantey would have been under legal age in 1736.
Note: This older Charles Cantey has been found on jury lists, conveyances, etc. but no probate has been found for him to name his children. An excellent candidate for his son would be the Charles Cantey who married Mary Neilson. Other Canteys, who were "unplaced" in Dr. Ames' genealogy of the family, may descend from him.

JOSIAH CANTEY

Josiah Cantey was the oldest living son of William and Arabella Cantey and of age on 8-26-1729 (handwritten compiled Cantey records, SC Historical Society, Chas., SC sourced as Conv. Bk II, p. 121). Josiah Cantey and spinster Elizabeth Boswood married 10-3-1731; Elizabeth Canty buried 10-2-1736 (Register of St. Andrew's Parish, Berkeley County, South Carolina, South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine). Josiah's wife was Susanna on 2-21-1752 (compiled Cantey records, op. cit. sourced as Conv. Bk KK, 242). The Will of Josiah Cantey of St. Mark's Parish dated 10-8-1773, proved 12-17-1773: Son William; daughters Elizabeth Brunson, Martha Richbourg, Comfort Green, Susanna Dennis, Rebecca Gale, Ann and Esther; son William to have care of Ann and Esther; Execs: son William and Richard Richardson Esq.; Witn.: Brinkley Corbett, Jas. Noble and Dorothy Corbett, her mark (Chas. Will Bk SS, 492). His children:

1. *William Cantey, only son named in father's Will. William, son of Josiah and Elizabeth Canty born 11-6-1732 (Register of St. Andrew's Parish, op. cit.). He was married to his 1st wife Rebeccah by 1-20-1760 when their son Josiah Cantey was born (Giessendanner Records of the Church of the Redeemer, Orangeburg, SC). Rebecca is a candidate for a daughter of James and Rebecca Brunson of St. Mark's Parish. She was alive on 10-1-1770 (Chas. Conv. Bk 3R, pp. 461-6). John Richbourg stated in his application for a Rev. War pension that William Cantey was the Captain of a militia company in the Rev. War (S.18175, Nat'l Arch.). William Cantey of Santee was deceased intestate by 1-9-1787 when his son Josiah Cantey and widow Martha Cantey applied for the administration of his estate (Apt. 13, pkg 434, Brent H. Holcomb and Elmer O. Parker, Camden District, S.C. Wills and Administrations 1781-1787 (1770-1796) 1978, pp. 11, 12). His widow Martha was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Maples; her children named in Mary Maples' Will (Janie Revill, Sumter District, pp. 8, 9; Sumter Bundle 62, 10).
2. Ann Cantey, unmarried in father's Will. Anne, daughter of Josiah and Elizabeth Canty Baptized 7-31-1734 (Register of St. Andrew's Parish, op. cit.). Her father's Will left her in the care of her brother William. Nothing more is known of her.
3. George Cantey, not named in father's Will. George, son of Josiah and Elizabeth Canty Baptized 10-2-1736; the same day his mother was buried (Ibid.). He was the last child of Josiah found in the parish register. Nothing more is known of him.
4. Elizabeth Cantey married Brunson in father's Will. James & Elizabeth Brunson were sponsors when William Cantey's son Josiah was Baptized 3-24-1760 (Giessendanner Records, op. cit.). James was the son of James and Rebecca Brunson of St. Mark's Parish (South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine, XLIV, 107). By the 1800 SC Census, James and Elizabeth had moved from Sumter District to Beaufort District, SC.
5. Martha Cantey married Richbourg in father's Will. Martha was last found alive on 2-2-1810 when she and husband Henry Richbourg were released as Trustees for her sister Hester/Esther Cantey Richbourg because "we are now getting old" (Sumter Conv. CC, 262). Henry was named first in the list of sons in the Will of Claudius Richbourg (Sumter Wills AA, 209). "Col. Henry Richbourg, a staunch Whig, turned Loyalist ..." (Robert D. Bass, Swamp Fox 1959, 258).
6. Comfort Cantey married Green in father's Will. Comfort married Moses Green of St. Mark's Parish (Sumter Conv. C, 267). The Will of Isaac Green of St. Mark's Parish dated 1-13-1769 named son Moses Green (Chas. Will Bk SS, 183). It is not known when Comfort died, but Moses remarried as evidenced by the Will of his daughter Martha Green Benbow (Sumter Bundle 118, 14).
7. Susanna Cantey married Dennis in father's Will. 1-3-1801, Richard Gower Dennis and wife Susannah (Sumter Conv. B, 103). John Richbourg stated in his application for a Rev. War pension that he served in a militia company commanded by Capt. William Cantey; Richard G. Dennis was Lt (#S.18175, Nat'l Arch.).

8. Rebecca Cantey married Gale in father's Will. Josiah Gayle Jr., Private in Capt. Matthew Singleton's Company of Horse 8-26-1775 (Xerox of original company roll). Among the Americans hanged by the British after Gates' defeat, 8-16-1780, was said to have been Josiah Gayle (Kirkland and Kennedy, Historic Camden Vol. I, 205). 1794 and 1795, John Harvin and wife Rebecca, late Rebecca Gayle, Admx. of Josiah Gayle Jr., dec'd (Camden District Judgment D, 212). A letter dated 10-19-1834 from Centreville, MS from Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Gayle to hr brother Willis Ramsey: "Aunt Rebecca Harvin is dead ..." (Sumter Roll 34).

9. Esther Cantey, unmarried in father's Will. Marriage settlement dated 10-20-1775 between Nathaniel Richbourg and Hester, daughter of Josiah & Susannah Cantey (Sumter Conv. CC, 262). Nathaniel was named as son in the Will of Claudius Richbourg (Sumter Wills CC, 262). Hesther and Nathaniel, both alive in Sumter District 3-19-1811 (Sumter Conv. C, 470). Nathaniel and their son Renna killed by Indians at Fort Mims, MS Territory on 8-30-1813 (Richard S. Lackey, Frontier Claims in the Lower South, 37, 38).

JOSIAH CANTEY

Josiah, son of William and Rebeccah Cantey of St. Mark's Parish, born 1-20-1760, Baptized at the Orangeburgh Church Monday 3-24-1760, sponsors were William Sims, James & Elizabeth Brunson (Giessendanner Records, Church of the Redeemer, Orangeburg, SC). The people of that part of St. Mark's Parish that became Old Sumter District took their children to the nearest Church of England which had a minister for Baptism and registration as was the law at the time. Josiah Cantey died intestate before 10-6-1817; Adms. Rebecca & William Cantey; Bond: John E. Brunson & Jesse Nettles (Sumter, Minute Bk, W. Potts, 39 & 112). Widow Rebecca Cantey and children named (Sumter Roll 61). The Will of Rebecca Cantey dated 12-14-1822, prb. 5-3-1824 named her children; Execs "my brother Henry Richbourg Jr.", son James Cantey, friend Jesse Nettles Jr. (Sumter Wills III, 65). There were 2 Henry Richbourgs younger than Henry Richbourg Sr. One was the proven son of William Richbourg, but all of William Richbourg's children can be proven and he had no daughter named Rebecca. This leaves the other Henry Richbourg who has been accepted as the son of Henry Richbourg Sr. and wife Martha Cantey by the South Carolina Huguenot Society. Children from Sumter Roll 61 & Sumter Wills III, 65:

1. William Cantey. He was married by the 1820 Sumter Census and enumerated next to the households of James, Rebecca and Zachariah Cantey in Clarendon. He married Elizabeth Cheason, daughter of Gershon Benbow (Sumter Conv. FF, 75). He was last found in Old Sumter District records on 1-28-1830 (Sumter Conv. H, 351). His father-in-law Gershon Benbow moved to Montgomery Co., AL where he died testate, Will dated 12-19-1838, naming daughter Elizabeth C. Cantey (Sumter Roll 54).

2. Zachariah Cantey. Zachariah was last found in Sumter District on the 1830 Census. 1850 Montgomery Co., AL Census #186: Zachariah "Canty" born ca. 1793 SC as head of the household; Rufus E. Canty born ca. 1825 SC; Margaret L. Canty born ca. 1827 SC; Erasmus H. Brunston born ca. 1891 SC; Zacharia E. Brunston born ca. 1833 AL. Zachariah Cantey married Mary Ann Wilder; their daughter Matilda Ann Cantey married James Brunson, both died in 1833; Brunson children raised by their Cantey grandparents (1993 letter from Miss Emily Brunson, 2617 - 17th St., Lubbock, TX 79410, quoting from a 1938 letter).

3.*James Cantey. James was last found in Sumter District on the 1830 Census. James Cantey married Elizabeth Nettles, daughter of Jesse Nettles Jr. & wife Rebecca Cantey (Mrs. Jackie Baker, 523 Benton Dr., Sumter, SC 29150). James Cantey married Elizabeth Nettles, daughter of Jesse Nettles Jr.; she was alive on 10-14-1873 in Pascagoula, MS; James Cantey dead on that date (1839 Sumter Will of Jesse Nettles, Jr. & 1873 probate records per late Wilhelm Von Hacke, Sumter, SC). Elizabeth Ann Nettles born 11-3-1797; Elizabeth Ann Nettles and James Cantey married 9-10-1818; Elizabeth Ann Canty died 5-11-1876 (Cantey Bible owned by Mrs. Gwen Neely Brewer, Merryville, LA 1998).

4. Martha R. Cantey. Martha R. Cantey was probably the female born 1805-1810 in the household of Rebecca Cantey on the 1820 Sumter Census. Martha R. Cantey is a candidate for the Martha R. , wife of Joseph F. Richbourg who died intestate in 1835, his widow remarried by 8-20-1839 to Simeon C. Richbourg (Sumter Bundle 79, 3 & Roll 84). Mrs. M. R. Richbourg, wife of S. C. Richbourg, died in Clarendon District on 5-21-1861 in her 55th yr (Southern Christian Advocate).

DEATH OF W. M. CANTY.

Willis

Mr. William M. Canty, a native of Jackson county and a resident of Pascagoula for many years, died at his home on Krebs avenue in this city on Friday, July 31, 1931, at 9 o'clock, after a short illness, though he had been in failing health for some time. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from late home of deceased, proceeding to the Church of Our Lady of Victory, where the last sad offices were read by Father Daugherty of Spring Hill. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of deceased. Many beautiful flowers attested the sympathy of friends in this city and other points along the coast.

The pall bearers were: Hermes Gautier, Charles Johnson, Harold W. Gautier, Hernando Gautier, Newton Gautier and Jos. Pelham.

W. M. Canty had been a leading citizen of Pascagoula since early manhood. He was born in Vancleave on June 19, 1856, and was therefore over seventy-five years of age. He came to Pascagoula in early childhood, and has been a resident here since. At one time he owned and conducted one of the largest mercantile establishments in this city, and of late years has been head of the Canty Coffee Company, jobbers in coffee and candy. He has been a councilman of Pascagoula, and occupied other positions of honor among his people, and was always foremost in those things that tended to improve the community in which he lived.

Mr. Canty is survived by his wife, who was Miss Julia Gautier of West Pascagoula; two sons, Herbert Canty of Bay St. Louis and Frank Canty of Pascagoula; two daughters, Miss Mamie Canty of Pascagoula and Mrs. B. T. Barnett of Washington, D. C. One son, William Canty, died several years ago. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Laura Gautier, and brother, Jim Canty, and also several half brothers and sisters, besides a number of grand children and other relatives.

William F. Todd Fatally Injured; Funeral Held Here

William F. Todd, 35 years, of New Orleans, son of Mrs. Mamie Canty Todd of Moss Point, was injured fatally on Thursday, August 12, about 1:30 p. m. when a wire in his hand apparently came in contact with high-voltage wires above the building on which he was working.

Mr. Todd, a steel worker, was tying down sections of steel lattices on the roof of a building and it is believed that in straightening out a coil of wire he had flung a length of it into contact with high-voltage wires overhead.

He fell backward striking his head on a steel beam and died about two hours later in Hotel Dieu.

Mr. Todd was born in Moss Point and spent his boyhood there. He had been in New Orleans for about six years prior to his death.

In addition to his mother he is survived by one son, William Forrest Todd, Jr., and three sisters, Mrs. A. C. Pritchett and Mrs. Bessie Todd Vetter, of Moss Point, and Mrs. P. T. Stevens of Baton Rouge.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 p.m. on Saturday afternoon at the Stokes Funeral Home with the Rev. N. U. Boone officiating and the Rev. J. F. Brock and the Rev. Walter Bader assisting.

Interment was in Greenwood cemetery and pall bearers were Frank Jackson, Benton Jackson and Alton Jackson, all of New Orleans, and cousins of Mr. Todd, Edwin Mays of Moss Point, Julius Wiggins and Kell Canty a cousin of Pascagoula.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tucker, Mrs. Melvin Villere, Mrs. Sidney Carrio and Mrs. Roger Bordages, all of Waveland; F. E. Canty, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jackson, Benton Jackson, Frank Jackson, Mrs. Roy Sewell, Mrs. George Cambali, Mrs. Eddie Herbert and Bernie Canty, all of New Orleans. Mrs. Mamie McCormack of Mobile, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Patterson, of Franklin, La., and Louis Yarborough of Jackson.

MRS. LAURA CARRIO

WAVELAND — Mrs. Laura Tucker Carrio, 97, of Baton Rouge, La., and formerly of Waveland, died Monday, Jan. 6, 1986, in Baton Rouge.

Mrs. Carrio was born in Vancleave. She was a member of United Methodist Church in Baton Rouge. She was preceded in death by her husband, Sidney Carrio.

Visitation will be tonight from 6 until 10 at Riemann Funeral Home in Bay St. Louis. A procession will leave the funeral home at 9:40 a.m. Thursday and go to Waveland United Methodist Church for services at 10. Burial will follow in Waveland Cemetery.

Survivors include a son, Edward G. Carrio of Baton Rouge; one daughter, Mrs. Betty Boyce of Bellmore, N.Y.; nine grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

He came to Pascagoula in early childhood, and has been a resident here since. At one time he owned and conducted one of the largest mercantile establishments in this city, and of late years has been head of the Canty Coffee Company, jobbers in coffee and candy. He has been a councilman of Pascagoula, and occupied other positions of honor among his people, and was always foremost in those things that tended to improve the community in which he lived.

Mr. Canty is survived by his wife, who was Miss Julia Gautier of West Pascagoula; two sons, Herbert Canty of Bay St. Louis and Frank Canty of Pascagoula; two daughters, Miss Mamie Canty of Pascagoula and Mrs. B. T. Barnett of Washington, D. C. One son, William Canty, died several years ago. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Laura Gautier, and brother, Jim Canty, and also several half brothers and sisters, besides a number of grand children and other relatives.

COAST GUARDSMAN CAPTURES TWO TWELVE FOOT SHARKS

Coast guardsmen of the local base reported the capture of two twelve foot sharks in Gulf waters off Mobile on the last patrol by E. Jager on the U. S. S. Wolcott.

The huge fish weighed approximately 1300 pounds each. Thirty-four large crabs were found in the stomach of the sharks. Big sharks are frequently seen on these patrols.

BIRMINGHAM VISITORS ON HORN ISLAND FISHING TRIP

where they were joined by Clifton Saucier for a fishing trip to Horn Island. They boarded the "Captain Kidd," owned by Ferdie Walker, and spent three days enjoying the sport of catching several Cavala and mackerel. They saw a large shark at Horn Island Pass

A pleasant interlude of the afternoon was a beauty contest, participated in by girls representing various business firms. First prize went to Leonora Suter Soden, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Soden. The tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Butler was adjudged the prettiest of those entered in a junior contest.

Among the speakers were Mayor J. R. Watts of Pascagoula, who welcomed the visitors to Pascagoula, and Homer Miller, commander of the Legion post. Mr. Miller made a pleasant talk and presented to Mrs. T. T. Justice of the Legion Auxiliary, their charter, which Mrs. Justice accepted with appropriate remarks.

Senator Harrison in his talk paid high tribute to the American Legion, saying it was a "grand organization." He urged the members to be cautious in their demands, and that surely they would exert a tremendous influence in the affairs of the country.

AUTOS CRASH TUESDAY NIGHT ON SOUTH PASCAGOULA STREET

Two cars were almost demolished and two persons slightly hurt in a crash which occurred Tuesday night on South Pascagoula street, at the corner of St. Peter street.

A car driven by Richard Clayton, accompanied by two boys and a lady, crashed head on into a car driven by Alf Dickson, accompanied by Jim McCool, both of Kreole, about 11:30 o'clock. Clayton was cut about the arm, and McCool received some cuts, but none of them serious.

As a result of the accident Clayton was arrested at Escatawpa and on being arraigned before Mayor Watts Thursday pleaded guilty to driving a car while in an intoxicated condition, and was fined $50.00 and cost of the trial. Clayton claimed that he had been drinking home brew before the accident occurred.

VENUS WINS AGAIN IN LAST SUNDAY'S BOAT RACE

Sunday afternoon boat racing on the bay in front of the municipal park continues to draw a crowd of spectators on the beach front. Venus was again victorious last Sunday, sailing over the nine mile course in 1 huor, 46 minutes and 15 seconds. Singing River was second in 1 hour, 47 minutes and 6 seconds, and Dom Pedro was third, finishing in 2 hours, 1 minute and 46 seconds.

NETTLES BIBLE

The following is the 2nd copying of a Nettles Bible record sourced as SC Bible Records, Vol. I, p. 105, SC Archives. The 1st copyist was the late Wilhelm Von Hacke of Sumter, SC. Dates have been abbreviated.

Solomon Nettles born 2-28-1721, his wife Elizabeth born 2-10-1721. Their children:

1. JACOB NETTLES born 9-..-1741
2. WILLIAM NETTLES born 4-2-1743
3. JESSE NETTLES born 6-4-1745
4. MARY NETTLES born 12-4-1747 twin
5. JOHN NETTLES born 12-4-1747 twin
6. MARLEY NETTLES born 5-21-1751 (son)
7. ELIJAH NETTLES born 8-21-1752
8. MOURNING NETTLES born 1-26-1754 (daughter)
9. ISIOM NETTLES born 5-3-1758 (in SC Records = Isham Nettles)
10. MARTHA NETTLES born 1-29-1759

Lott Maund died 9-27-1765
Lazarus Drake died 2-20-1783
Malachi Maund died 10-7-1783
Anne, daughter of Lazarus Drake, married Benjamin Marley (No dates)

The following comments, apparently with the Bible record, were made by the late Leonardo Andrea of Columbia, SC.

> There is an old Nettles family tradition that Solomon Nettles married a Marley. I find in SC quite early a John Marley who is frequently associated with the Nettles family but I have never documented any kinship.
> Vestry Book of Petsworth Parish in Gloucester Co., VA p. 211: Solomon Nettles, a minor aged about the age of 7 was on the 25 Nov. 1728 bound to an apprenticeship to John Reade by his mother Mary Nettles.
> Solomon Nettles was a son of Robert Nettles and his wife Mary Vicaris (Vicars) and a grandson of the Rev. Thomas Vicaris and his wife Dorothy. (My Ms on Nettles)
> Page 746 from Statistics of SC by Robert Mills, prepared in 1813 printed in 1826, sections on different counties prepared at various times. Sumter District was prepared in 1813. "Old Mr. and Mrs. Nettles reside about 10 miles from Stateburg. They removed here about 30 years ago. Each one is aged 92 and both were born the same month and year in VA. They both are healthy, cheerful and good humoured. ...In 1803 they had 134 living descendants." From the family data by Jesse Nettles and his brother Capt. Wm. Nettles, we know that Mills referred to Solomon Nettles and his wife. In my Nettles Ms I have the names of the wives of some of the sons. I also have copies of the Bibles of Jesse and Wm. Nettles.

> Gloucester Co., VA, Edgecombe Co., NC
> Sumter Co., SC.

Bible owned by Sue Lena Griffin Drake, Temperance Hall Church, Edgecombe Co., NC.

The following is in reference to some of those mentioned above.

William Nettles born 4-2-1743

William Nettles born 4-2-1742 Surry Co., VA, died 11-3/4-1833, married Amelia; promoted to Capt. (Rev. War pension application #R.7599, Bobby Gilmer Moss, Roster of South Carolina Patriots in the American Revolution 1983). Apparently, he is the same man as follows. William Nettles born 4-2-1734, died 10-15-1832, married Amy Alexander, 2nd Mary Mathis, 3rd Mrs. Hester Cook, Capt., SC (DAR Patriot Index). "Daniel and Sophia Mathis left, as far as known, four children, Samuel, Israel, Mary and Sarah, ... Sarah married Col. Joseph Kershaw, Israel practised law at Camden in partnership with his brother Samuel, until about 1810, when he moved to Sumter County. Mary married Capt. William Nettles. ...." (Kirkland and Kennedy, Historic Camden Vol I, 86). William Nettles was the first of the Nettles found in the area. On 2-20-1767 a survey was made for him for 150 acres on both sides of Rafting Creek (Arch., Plat Bk 11, 66).

Jesse Nettles born 6-4-1745

Jesse Nettles born 6-4-1745, died 2-13-1825, mar. Ann Stroud, Private & Patriotic Service, NC (DAR Patriot Index). "NC" may be a publishing eror or an error on an application for membership. Jesse Nettles had a survey for 100 acres in the area that became Sumter District on 12-5-1770 (Plat Bk 16, 480 SC Arch.). One Jesse Nettles made bridles and dressed leather for the SC state troops in 1782 (Moss, op. cit.). Jesse Nettles of Claremont died testate between 5-24-1822 and 2-21-1825 naming his children but no wife (Sumter Wills III, 79).

Elijah Nettles born 8-21-1752

One Elisha [his mark] Nettles was a signer of the 1775 Association for Public Defense District Eastward of Wateree (Xerox of original document). One Elisha Nettles was the head of a household on the 1790 SC Census in the northern part of Orangeburg District. On the published 1800 SC Census, Elijah Nettles was the head of a household in Orangeburg Co.

Mourning Nettles born 1-26-1754

Mourning Nettles was the first wife of Thomas Compton. Mourning Compton was a witness on 4-5-1786 when Jesse Nettles and wife Anna sold land (Sumter Conv. BB, 215). In a letter dated 10-30-1856, Mary Ann Nettles, daughter of Stephen Nixon, referred to Thomas Compton as her old uncle (Rev. War pension #R.7678; Nat'l Arch.). Thomas Compton was married to Nancy ... by 5-7-1835 (Sumter Conv. I, 311).

Isiom/Isham Nettles born 5-3-1758

One Isham Nettles made caps for the state troops during 1782 (Moss, op. cit.). Isham Nettles was on the Petit Jury List for Camden District in 1783 (Mary B. Warren, South Carolina Jury Lists, 1718 Through 1783 1977). One Isham Nettles was the head of a household on the 1790 SC Census in Prince Frederick Parish.

Martha Nettles born 1-29-1759

All of the following from Rev. War pension #R.7678. Stephen Nixon married Martha Nettles, daughter of Solomon and Elizabeth Nettles, on 4-10-1780 by Richard Furman, minister of the Gospel in Sumter District, SC. Martha died 9-25-1846 in Richland District, SC. Stephen Nixon was born 12-11-1754 and died in Richland District on 2-4-1816.

Comments: From the late Leonardo Andrea's statements above, he had a great deal of information that should be checked by Nettles researchers. Andrea's Nettles file may be at the South Caroliniana Library in Columbia, SC. The Jesse Nettles and William Nettles Bibles that he mentioned may be of particular importance. Leonardo Andrea worked as a professional genealogist and was very good at his job, however, researchers should be aware of the following. Although the data that he collected on various families is available, the sources for the data presented generally went just to his client. Examination of several of his family files reveal that he was a very bad typist and did not always correct his typing mistakes.

NETTLES, JESSE

Jesse Nettles, son of Solomon and Elizabeth Nettles, was born in VA on 6-4-1745 (SC Bible Records, Vol. I, p. 105, SC Arch.). Jesse Nettles 6-4-1745/ 2-13-1825, married Ann Stroud (DAR Patriot Index). Jesse Nettles was first found on the High Hills of Santee on 12-5-1770 when a survey was made for him for 100 acres (Plat Book 16, 480, SC Arch.). Jesse Nettles died testate between 5-24-1822 and 2-21-1825 naming his children but no wife (Sumter Wills III, 79). His wife Ann Stroud 11-30-1755/6-25-1820 (Mrs. Iliene B. Rowe, Rt 1, Box 245, Summerton, SC sourced as William Carl Nettles, 119 Folger St., Clemson, SC).

Children:

1. Jesse Nettles. Jesse Nettles 8-10-1775/7-2-1839, married Rebecca Cantey (Ibid.). Jesse Nettles Jr. married Rebecca Cantey who died before 1839 (Mrs. Jackie Baker, Sumter, SC). Rebecca Nettles was a witness with Jesse Nettles Jr. on 1-16-1810 & 8-17-1811 (Sumter Conv. E, 193 & CC, 460). Jesse Nettles died testate in July 1839 (late Wilhelm Von Hacke, Sumter, SC).
2. Hezekiah Nettles. Hezekiah Nettles 1-7-1782/4-19-1860 Marengo Co., AL; married Eleanor White 12-8-1789/6-27-1812, married Susanna White 5-11-1790/ 8-31-1821, married Susan E. White 7-22-1798/ 5-30-1833 (Nettles Bible, SC Bible Records, Vol. II, p. 96 SC Arch.).
3. John Nettles. John Nettles married Elizabeth J. Miller, daughter of John B. Miller (Sumter Conv. KK, 378). 1850 Sumter Census #868: John Nettles Sr. born ca. 1790; children; L. B. Ellis born ca. 1827 NY. 1860 Sumter Census, P.O. Manchester #77: John Nettles born ca. 1790; 3 daughters. Tombstone survey Bethel Baptist Cem., Sumter Co.: John Nettles 3-30-1790/12-13-1863; Elizabeth John Nettles died 5-24-1840, aged 28 years, 2 days.
4. Harvey Nettles. He was last found in Sumter District on 7-30-1831 when he sold with Amos A. Nettles land which apparently had been in his father's estate (Sumter Conv. I, 305). His wife was Eliza Mary on 1-1-1828 (Sumter Conv. GG, 266).
5. Joseph M. Nettles. He is said to have had the middle name of Marley, the surname of his paternal grandmother. He married Martha Ann Rivers (Sumter Conv. FF, 168 & KK, 106). 1850 Sumter Census #641: Joseph M. Nettles born ca. 1797; Martha A. Nettles born ca. 1802; 2 young children. 1860 Sumter Census, P.O. Privateer #29: Joseph M. Nettles born ca. 1797; Martha A. Nettles born ca. 1802; 2 children.
6. Amos A. Nettles, youngest son in father's Will. His middle name is said to have been Arton, the surname of his maternal grandmother. Amos was married to Emily Singleton, daughter of John Singleton by 12-18-1828 (Sumter Conv. I, 40 & Sumter Roll 445). Amos A. Nettles married Leonora Ann Dargan, eldest daughter of John M. Dargan on 8-16-1843 (Camden Journal). He married Mary Sumter Murrell, widow of Josiah Wilder before 12-12-1849 (Sumter Roll 304). 1850 Sumter Census #1913: Amos

A. Nettles born ca. 1800; Mary S. Nettles born ca. 1810; children. "Died in our town on Wed. The 26th Nov., Amos A. Nettles, Esq. after an illness of but little more than two days, resulting from a paralytic stroke, in the 62 year of his age" (undated newspaper clipping found in an old book formerly belonging to Jeremiah Pitts, abstracted by Mrs. Elizabeth L. Girardeau, Aiken, SC). He died testate in 1862, dating his Will 6-4-1862, prb. 12-8-1862 (Sumter Wills 1860-1867, 150). He and his wife Mary S. Murrell Nettles may have been separated at the time of his death. A. A. Nettles, magistrate born ca. 1801 and his unmarried children were enumerated in the household of J. B. Roach, town of Sumter #4 on the 1860 Sumter Census and Mary S. Nettles born ca. 1813 was enumerated alone at #139 on the 1860 Sumter Census. Mrs. M. S. Nettles, a widow, born ca. 1810, was enumerated in the household of her son-in-law Richard Webb on the 1880 Sumter Census.

7. Martha Nettles married Rogers in father's Will. David Rogers is a candidate for her husband. David Rogers' Will named the children which he had by his first wife as Lot, Winny, Jesse, John, William, Tabitha, Martha and Mary (Will of David Rogers dated 2-8-1851 at Sumter Courthouse). David was married by 5-7-1836 to Catherine Wells, daughter of Willoby Wells (Sumter Conv. II, 179). David Rogers, born ca. 1779 in VA, was enumerated on the 1850 Sumter Census with wife Catherine. David Rogers died at his residence in Sumter District on 1-21-1855 (Watchman).

8. Temperance Nettles married Holladay in father's Will. She married John Holladay who died intestate in 1820 (Sumter Roll 545). She died 5-19-1850 intestate; son John J. Holladay as Adm. (Sumter Bundle 127,20).

9. Elsy Nettles married Pack in father's Will. She married Joseph Pack, Jr., son of Joseph Pack (Sumter Conv. FF, 116 & Sumter Wills III, 174). They were last found on the Index to 1830 Sumter Census. They are said to have moved to AL.

10. Tabitha Nettles, apparently unmarried in father's Will. She is said to have married John Croskey/?Coskrey.

11. Mary Nettles. Mary, no surname, was named in father's Will which also named his McKellar grandchildren. Jesse's daughter married the Rev. James McKellar, a native of the Shire of Argyle, Scotland, aged 31 years when he applied for citizenship on 12-21-1811 (Sumter Conv. CC, 520). He was deceased by 4-15-1820 (Sumter, Potts Sales I, 125 per VH). Mary McKellar was the head of the household on the 1820 Sumter Census.

12. Winnie Nettles. The children, unnamed, of deceased daughter Winnie Brunson were mentioned in father's Will. Peter E. Brunson is a candidate for her husband. Peter E. Brunson of Claremont was deceased intestate by 1-27-1837 (Sumter Conv. II, 402.).

13. Elizabeth Nettles. The children, unnamed, of deceased daughter Elizabeth Atkins were mentioned in father's Will. She is said to have married James Atkins.

NETTLES, JESSE JR.

Jesse Nettles was named as a son in the Will of Jesse Nettles dated 5-24-1822 (Sumter Wills III, 79). Jesse Nettles 8-10-1775/7-2-1839, married Rebecca Cantey (Mrs. Iliene B. Rowe, Summeton, SC, sourced as William Carl Nettles, Clemson, SC). Jesse Nettles Jr. married Rebecca Cantey who died before 1839 (Mrs. Jackie Baker, Sumter, SC). Rebecca Nettles was a witness with Jesse Nettles Jr. on 1-16-1810 & 8-17-1811 (Sumter Conv. E, 193 & CC, 460). If Jesse's wife was Rebecca Cantey, then she is a candidate for a daughter of William Cantey by his 1st wife Rebecca. Jesse Nettles died testate in July 1839 (late Wilhelm Von Hacke, genealogist of Sumter, SC). The late Wilhelm Von Hacke listed the children of Jesse Nettles from his Will and from probate records 1872/1873. Additional information will be in brackets.

Lt. William H. Canty Among Four Reported Missing In War Theatres

A war department notification that Lt. (j.g.) William H. Canty, 23 years old, USNR, is missing after an operational flight was received here this week by relatives of the young lieutenant, who is a native of Pascagoula.

Relatives said that there was no indication as to what type of operation the missing flyer was engaged in or in what theatre of war when the flight was made.

A war department telegram came addressed to his next of kin, Ensign Dorothy Forsberg (Mrs. Raymond T. Forsberg) who is stationed at present with the WAVEs at Jacksonville, Fla. The flight was made September 27. The message read: "The Navy Department regrets to inform you that your brother, Lt. (j.g.) William H. Canty is missing in action following an operational flight, while in the service of his country. The department appreciates your great anxiety but details are not available and delay in reception must necessarily be expected."

Lt. Canty recently made a brief visit on leave to the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. M. Canty, and aunt, Miss Mamie Canty, while en route to his assignment. The young flyer was educated in the schools of this city and was president of the senior class of the Pascagoula High school. In this position he participated in dedicatory exercises with his uncle, Frank Canty, who was acting as a representative of the school board.

He attended Louisiana State University for two years before enlisting in the Naval Reserve. While at the university he took aviation training, and was a civilian pilot before entering the Naval Cadet school in 1942. He was commissioned at Pensacola, Fla.

LT. (J.G.) WILLIAM H. CANTY

Three other service men well known in this area were reported missing during the week.

Mrs. Shirley McNair Mathews received news Sunday that her husband, Lt. Robert Craig Mathews, has been missing since Sept. 8 following a mission over Germany. Lt. Mathews, who has been in the service over two years, was employed here at Ingalls for a number of months. His wife, and 15-month-old son, Robert Craig, Jr., reside at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rourke, at 624 Front street, Pascagoula. The missing flyer is a nephew of Mrs. D. B. Clayton of 1108 Buena Vista street, Pascagoula.

was notified that his son-in-law, Ensign Donald Baxter, was missing in action in the South Pacific. The ensign's wife is at present residing in Pasadena, Calif., where Mrs. Dantzler went to join her. The Dantzlers were formerly of New Orleans.

George M. Harrison of 230 Canty street, Pascagoula, was notified Monday that his son, Lt. James M. Harrison has been missing following a mission over Germany, September 11. Lt. Harrison, who received wings both as a bombardier and navigator, is 20 years old and enlisted in the Army when the Mississippi National Guard was federalized in 1940, when he was only 16. He received his commission at Barkley Field, Texas, and has been overseas since May 18.

again in the last quarter to score two additional touchdowns.

Scoring a touchdown in the first quarter, Jack Fields took the ball for Moss Point and advanced to the 18-yard line. Vernon Wells then pitched a flat pass to Mack Myers who put the ball in a scoring position. On the second down Wells scored from the 2-yard line on a quarterback sneak. Harry Davis came in the game for Pierce to kick the extra point. The kick was good and that ended the Tigers' scoring for the night.

A crowd of about 1500 fans turned out to witness the first 1944 game between two fairly evenly matched teams. The Moss Point High school band put on a fine performance between halves. After marching down the field to a military tune, the band formed a "V" in front of the Moss Point stand and played the national anthem, the pep squad leading the singing.

NEWS FROM OUR BOYS

Cadet W. H. Canty

W. H. Canty, who has recently been appointed a Naval Aviation Cadet at Pensacola, Fla., which is now being termed the "Annapolis of the Air."

The young aviator is the grandson of Mrs. William Canty of Krebs Avenue, Pascagoula, with whom he and his sister, Miss Dorothy Canty, have ben making their home since the death of their parents a number of years ago.

Canty was president of the first class to be graduated from the new Pascagoula High school and made the speech of acceptance for the students at the dedicatory ceremonies for the school. It was also an unusual coincidence that Canty's uncle, Frank Canty, acting for the school board made the speech of presentation.

With the completion of his course, Canty will be commissioned as an Ensign in the Naval Reserves, or as a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserves.

From Fort Knox, Kentucky,

Private Charles R. Thomas, now stationed at Camp Shelby, spent the past week with his wife and parents at their home in Escatawpa. Private Thomas will soon be placed in the Coast Artillery at which time Mrs. Thomas will join him at his new post.

Private Bruner Carlton Carter, of Mount Pleasant, has been home on furlough for two weeks from Camp Wheeler, Ga. "Buck" is in Co. C, 6th Training Battalion, at Camp Wheeler.

Another Pascagoulan to attain the rank of Ensign is Carl Miller, who was recently graduated from the Naval Reserve school at Northwestern University where he was sent from South Bend, Mich., to which point he was sent on his enlistment several months ago. Ensign Miller departs tomorrow for an unrevealed destination after a visit to his mother, Mrs. Carl Miller, 1251 Buena Vista street, Pascagoula.

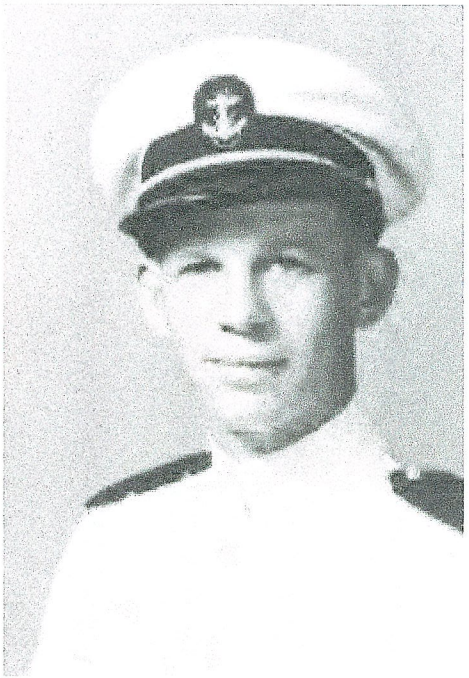
Remembering "The Candyman"

By Ted Forsberg



My earliest childhood memory is of a photo on a dresser in my parents' room. The photo is of a very handsome young man in a brilliant white naval uniform with a pair of gold aviator wings on his chest. He seemed to always be smiling down at me. I was about 4 years old and had no idea that the man in the photo was my Uncle William or that he was lost in the Pacific in World War II.

As I grew up I came to understand that the young man in the photo was an important and painful memory for my family, yet it would be over 40 years later before I would truly know who "The Candyman" was. My family was never exactly sure how William was lost in the Pacific, except that he was posted as missing by the Navy in September 1944. I am deeply touched today to honor his memory.

William H. Canty was born in the Deep South and grew up as an orphan along with his older Sister, Dorothy Canty. "Willie", as he was known as a kid, lived the tiny town of Pascagoula, Mississippi on the Gulf coast. "Willie" is remembered by those who knew him as a fine young man who inspired everyone around him, made everyone laugh, and always had a big smile on his face.

William Canty graduated from High School in Pascagoula, and went on to Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana where he became an LSU "Tiger". As a student William took aviation courses and eventually joined the Civil Air Patrol at LSU. As World War II raged on, William was offered an enlistment in the Navy and left LSU for flight training at the Naval Air Station Pensacola. William graduated from Pensacola NAS as a Naval Aviator on March 23, 1943.

After graduation William was detached for training in Miami, Florida and then to Glenview, Illinois. He was then assigned to the Atlantic Fleet for convoy duty in the North Atlantic. Upon returning from convoy duty he was assigned to the famous Torpedo Squadron 8 which had reformed after the battle of Midway. After a stint with Torpedo 8 he was ordered in 1944 to join the veteran squadron

Torpedo 4 at Quonset Point, Rhode Island. Torpedo 4, while aboard the USS Ranger, had recently returned from a strike on German shipping along the Norwegian coast between Sandnessjøen and Bodø.

William trained with VT-4 in Rhode Island and received orders to move with squadron to Hawaii for action in the Pacific Theater. William visited his Sister, a WAVE, (my Mom) and her new husband, Lt (jg) Ray Forsberg (my Dad) at Jacksonville NAS prior to shipping out to Hawaii.

Somehow William managed to send a beautiful dog to my Mom while he was heading off to Hawaii. No one knows how he managed to send the dog cross-country all the way to Jacksonville NAS. Mom named the dog "Candy" which was uniquely appropriate as William was immediately nicknamed "The Candyman" by the pilots and crew in Torpedo 4. "Candy" dog was really special in our family.

When Torpedo 4 arrived in Hawaii, the squadron was assigned to a base in Hilo on the Big Island. As a Naval air base, Hilo served as a point from which many training missions were flown by VT-4. My veteran friends in VT-4 recently have told me that it was not always tough duty, as they occasionally had time to play a little golf and go into Honolulu on liberty.

On September 21, 1944 "Candyman", his Skipper, and most of VT-4 squadron were on a night training flight off Hilo when a midair collision took place in a storm, and 3 planes were lost with 9 pilots and crewmen. "Candyman" and his crew were lost that night.

On October 9, 1998 my family gathered at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge for a dedication of a new War Memorial for all the LSU students lost in World War II and other wars. It seems appropriate that a TBF Avenger pilot, former President George Bush, dedicated the memorial and paid tribute to the LSU war dead that day. We honored the memory of "Candyman" as a "missing man" fighter jet plane formation flew overhead and an enormous American flag waved over the newly dedicated memorial wall.

After the memorial my family agreed to try to find out what had happened and how "Candyman" was lost in the Pacific, if any records were still available. After a difficult search I was fortunate to get in contact with Hill Goodspeed, the Naval Historian at Pensacola NAS Museum. Hill informed me of Jerry Thomas and his book Torpedo Squadron Four: A Cockpit View of World War II and read the chapter about the night of September 21, 1944 over the telephone. I owe a huge debt of gratitude to Hill and retired Rear Admiral Herb Bridge, who also helped me in this search.

In the next year or two after the LSU Memorial, my family and I all traveled to Hawaii at different times and visited the "Punchbowl", which is the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific. It is a truly special place and all 28,778 names of the Pacific War missing in action are there engraved in the Courts of the Missing columns. "Candyman" is listed there along with the other men from VT-4. Each of us said a little prayer for the memory of these heroes during our visit and found great comfort in this most peaceful place. The sun always seems to shine on the Punchbowl.

In September of 2000 my family and I attended the VT-4 Squadron Reunion in Stillwater, MN. For me it seemed like being together with old friends and family during the very special reunion. It was a real highlight and honor to finally meet all the guys that had known "Candyman" and flown with him in 1944. We owe a lot to all the squadron members who shared their memories with us and I will always remember the time we had together. I am proud to wear the red VT-4 "Sweep the Seas" squadron emblem that my friends in VT-4 gave me and it brings me good luck.

My memory of "Candyman's" photo back home in his dress white uniform will always stay with me. His story and those of the other VT-4 men lost and missing in action during World War II in the Pacific will never be forgotten.

Addendum to "Remembering"

In memory of a true friend and fellow pilot, I am adding a few comments to Ted Forsberg`s excellent tribute to his uncle Lt(jg) William H. Canty.

When the USS Ranger returned to the States on December 3, 1943, Air Group 4, still assigned to the Ranger, was reorganized and enlarged. New pilots and crew members were added. Bill (Candyman) Canty and Scott Vogt were transferred to us from Torpedo Squadron Eight (VT-8)--recently reformed after the disastrous loss of all planes during the Battle of Midway Even though Candyman and Scott had trained only briefly with Torpedo Eight, that association with the now famous Squadron carried an aura of glamour.

Bill Canty and I soon became very close friends. I don't know who first tacked on the label "Candyman" but it seemed natural. He was a redhead with a pleasant smile and a great sense of humor.

Shortly after the Ranger returned to the East Coast, four of my closest friends (Bob Ruth, Will Souza, Buck Barnett, and Felix Ward) took advantage of this Stateside duty to get married. I then teamed up with two other single pilots, Mak Makibbin and Canty. Together we shared duty assignments and liberty breaks.

On December 20, Torpedo Squadron 4 officially changed command. Lt Cd D. W. (Woot) Taylor was assigned to another Air Group and our Executive Officer, Lt. Homer H. (Hutch) Hutchison was promoted to Skipper of VT-4. (Woot Taylor was killed later in an F6F operational accident.) Under Hutchison, training was intensified and we soon qualified for night carrier operations.

Air Group 4 was detached from the Ranger on April 16, 1944 to move to Fort Devens, Massachusetts as a 90-plane outfit. Finally, on June 29, we turned in our planes to Base Command at Quonset Point, Rhode Island and boarded a train for the West Coast. While we were waiting the next assignment, we enjoyed liberty in San Diego and Tijuana, Mexico. On July 13th, Air Group 4 personnel were loaded aboard the USS Barnes for transport to Hawaii. We arrived at Pearl Harbor on July 21, 1944.

Headquarters for Squadron operations for the next several weeks was the airbase at Hilo, Hawaii. Here the Squadron carried on intensive operational training with a new note of seriousness, for now the real test was just around the corner. All personnel worked hard and played hard to take advantage of their much-needed break from carrier duty.

On September 21, 1944, tragedy struck Torpedo Four. Three of our planes collided in a severe rain squall during night operations and the Squadron lost our Skipper and nine other airmen. The details of this accident are contained in my book. This was the saddest day in the history of our Squadron. Our losses were Lt Cdr Homer Hamby Hutcheson, Lt(jg) William H. Canty, Ens Merrill Silver Stocker, ACRM Henry N. Karsemeyer, AOM2c Edward James Dooner, AOM2c Thomas Charles Bradley, AOM3c William Laverne Finkenbinder, AOM3c Harry Lester Johnston, and ARM3c Raymond N Glew. As stated at the memorial service, "They gave their lives for God and Country."

In January 1999, I received a nostalgic letter from Dorothy Canty Forsberg. William Canty`s sister seeking more information on her brother`s death. She and her son Ted, who wrote the above article, had just learned about the Torpedo Four book and our version of the events that led to the untimely death of Candyman. I take the liberty here to quote from Dorothy's letter:

> "William and I were very close. We grew up orphans raised by our grandmother in a small town on the Gulf Coast, Pascagoula, Mississippi. We clung together our whole lives, sharing everything--each other's best friends. William had red hair. He laughed all of the time, and everybody loved him. William was strong, and even as a boy he was fearless."
> "I was a WAVE stationed at the time of William's death at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville, Florida. I had spent my life remembering my brother. All of my long life and I am almost eighty. I have agonized remembering my sweet brother and wondering what had happened to him. I suppose I really did not want to know. Yet I had a need to know. I now have a tremendous feeling of relief. I guess they call it closure. World War II pushed us as close to hell as we will ever be, but the victory was worth the effort."

Dorothy ends her letter with thanks to those of us who served in World Wa II. But we all know that the true heroes are those who made the supreme sacrifice, whether in combat, operations, or training. We join Dorothy Canty Forsberg and her son Ted in a salute to our friend, William (Candyman) Canty, a pilot who served his Country with distinction in Torpedo Squadron Four during WWII.

5. Tragedy Strikes Night Operations

"Three VT-4 planes collided during night operations and the squadron lost nine men, including one of the most capable skippers in the Navy."

Headquarters for squadron operations for the next several weeks was the airbase at Hilo, Hawaii. Here the squadron carried on intensive operational training with a new note of seriousness, for now the real test was just around the corner. All personnel worked hard and played hard to take advantage of their much-needed break from carrier duty.

Lt Cdr H. H. "Hutch" Hutcheson was a good pilot and a hard-driving Skipper. He wanted to make every minute of our land-based stay at Hilo productive. We usually made two training flights a day and numerous night flights, often in bad weather. Sometimes we flew a tight formation at night with all lights out, relying only on exhaust flames to stay in touch with wingmen.

Hutch drove us so hard that there was a building resentment from the pilots. We all thought we took too many chances with the weather. We had a few vertigo incidents, which were shocking to both pilots and crew. The "needle-ball-airspeed" seat-of-the-pants trained pilots of VT-4 probably were more subject to the hazards of vertigo than the modern instrument-trained flyers of today.

On one occasion, a night flight was scheduled from the Hilo airstrip in very bad weather. It was so dark that there was no visible horizon for orientation. I took off with the proper spacing behind another plane. We were flying with a minimum of external lights. As I became airborne, I glanced briefly at my cockpit instruments to check on critical readings, then looked ahead to try to join up with the other plane. I thought I spotted his taillight as he was making a join-up turn. But this plane in front kept going slower and slower. I glanced into the cockpit frequently to check my airspeed and couldn't understand why the lead plane was so slow. I was about to join up on this light when my radio altimeter turned red. I immediately advanced the throttle, just barely missing a house on the side of the volcano. The light I had been trying to join up on was not one of our planes in the air but a light from a house on the ground. I hope I didn't break any windows as I flew full-throttle over the rooftop. This kind of vertigo experience was not unusual for pilots caught between instruments and formation responsibility. We had to split our attention, but the major charge was to hold our position in the flight division.

Lt (jg) W. H. Bill Canty joined Torpedo Four at the same time as Lt (jg) Scott Vogt, as we moved from the Atlantic to the Pacific theater of war. Both pilots were transferred to us from Torpedo Eight--recently reformed after the disastrous loss of all planes (with Ensign Gay as the sole survivor) during the Battle of Midway. Even though Scott and Canty had trained only briefly with squadron Torpedo Eight, that association with the now famous squadron, where all members made the supreme sacrifice, carried an aura of glamour. We respected these transfer pilots and did not know at the time that both would suffer the same fate as that of their original squadron buddies.

I felt very close to Ensign Bill Canty. I don't know who first tacked on the label "Candyman," but it was a natural. He was a redhead from the Midwest with a pleasant smile and a good sense of humor. Unmarried, he was a logical teammate for several of the junior pilots. Consequently, we went on liberty together, usually restricted to short trips to downtown Hilo, Hawaii. A couple of times we had an afternoon off to play golf at the Hilo Country Club on the slope of Mauna Loa.

Some of us were in downtown Honolulu on a night after the Fifth Marines returned from combat in the Pacific. We were shocked to observe the animosity of the Marines toward anyone who resembled the Japanese. After a few drinks, some innocent Hawaiians also felt the wrath of these Marines on R&R. Shore patrols were kept busy breaking up the fights. Curfew and blackouts were blessings for both natives and military personnel.

Canty 157

The skipper of Torpedo Four had designated me as "Material Officer" for the squadron, so one day I was ordered to fly from Hilo to Barber's Point, Honolulu, for some squadron supplies. Candyman was to accompany me in another Avenger. We made the flight to Barber's Point without incident but had some trouble with our contacts on the base where we were to pick up the supplies (mostly flight gear and spare parts). Consequently, we were later than expected for our departure back to the Hilo airstrip.

The weather had closed in on the Big Island when we reached it. We could see the top of the volcano, but there was a solid cloud layer covering the field. Our planes were not equipped with sophisticated radar, and there were no ground control techniques to guide the planes onto the runway.

We circled Mauna Loa a couple of times. Candyman was flying on my left wing. I called the tower and received word that the visibility was limited but we should be able to get in. I radioed Canty that we would go out to sea a short distance, then come in from the north at near-ground level. The main problem was to stay clear of the volcano which covered much of the island. Our orders were to return that day, so neither of us considered a possible flight back to Pearl Harbor.

We finally made it back to the airstrip after an anxious letdown through the soup. That was only one event in a long series that made our training hazardous while we were awaiting assignment to go aboard the Bunker Hill.

On September 21, 1944, during night operations out of Hilo Air Station, three VT-4 planes ran together in a severe rain squall, and the squadron lost one of the most capable skippers in the Navy, Lt Cdr Hutcheson. Lt (jg) Canty, Ens M. S. Stocker, and all crew members were also lost and never found in the sea search that followed.

Lt (jg) Page Stephens stated the circumstances as follows: (1)

> "I was with Hutch the night they ran together. I was not scheduled but Trex and Makibbin had dates with some girls in Hilo so I was persuaded to take it. We were doing one of those exercises where a flare plane split from the group and dropped flares on one side of the target while the rest of the flight stretched out in a line and made a torpedo attack from the opposite side. I drew the task of the flare plane so when we were airborne I joined up on Hutch's section. Canty was his wingman on the starboard; the other two were Binder on his port, and Stocker directly below 'in the well.'"
> "There were some clouds that night and as 'Hutch' approached one, he gave his usual directive, 'Close up.' We did, and once in the cloud I could see Binder's wing lights and beyond that, Hutch's. The cloud became thicker and Hutch's lights faded out."
> "There I was, in the middle of the cloud flying wing on Jolly Ed Binder who was without doubt the worst instrument pilot in the squadron. Instinct told me to check my artificial horizon and when I did, I realized we were banking into an ever-increasing steeper turn. My reaction with instant. I pushed over, dropped about 200 feet, and pulled out heading away from the formation. By that time I was under the cloud and could see no other planes. A few seconds later I saw quite an explosion down on the water. Later I realized this must have been the three planes hitting the water."

Canty

"All I could do then was to try to contact other planes and tell them to go back to the field. I am not sure who else was on that flight but I believe Bob Ruth was. The next morning when it was light we searched the area but found nothing more than an oil slick."

That night when word reached the barracks of the crash, many of the pilots and crew got drunk--very drunk! Scott Vogt took on a "crying jag." The loss of Bill Canty, his Torpedo Eight buddy, was too much for him.

Before the crash I had drawn a cartoon of Hutch and had it tacked to the barracks wall. The cartoon depicted our skipper, sitting on top of a pile of Navy regulations, issuing one of his frequent memos to officer personnel. The cartoon was drawn in jest. Nevertheless, after the 3-plane collision, some of the surviving pilots became very critical of Hutch's rigorous training schedule and the numerous flights in bad weather. After a few drinks they spotted my cartoon on the wall and started cursing and throwing their knives at it. I rescued it after it received two direct hits.

We lost some good pilots and crew members in this accident. It was impossible to place the blame on any one individual. The real culprit was the weather. However, some resentment and responsibility continued to be placed on Hutch. Later, when we got back into combat, most of us were thankful that Hutch had put us through some important and rigorous training--perhaps saving some lives later. Who knows?

There is no doubt that we lost one of the best Torpedo skippers in the Navy in Lt Cdr Homer Hamby Hutcheson. While he demanded high performance, he had a special concern for each of his pilots. His wife June stated (2) "Before the Squadron left the States... he had invited all his new Ensigns to his home for Sunday dinner. That's why I remember so many of you."

We continued the search for possible survivors for three days after the crash--without success. Memorial services were held the next Sunday in St. Joseph's Church, Hilo, Hawaii, for Torpedo Four pilots and crew. A portion of the service in Our Lady of Victory Chapel follows:

The Canty name and family have been a familiar and respected name in Pascagoula for four generations. To fully understand the importance of this name however, we must make our way back to South Carolina. According to Historic Camden, Kirkland and Kennedy:

> Ancestors of the Cantey family came to South Carolina in its earliest colonial period. Two brothers, John Cantey(I) and William Cantey were the first of the name to settle in America, it being uncertain it seems, whether they were from Wales or Ireland. Of these brothers nothing is related beyond the fact of immigration.

Many outstanding men are included in this account of the Cantey's in Historic Camden, South Carolina. However, until conclusive evidence connecting them to the Pascagoula line can be found that information will not be included.

The following is an excerpt from a biographical sketch on General James W. Cantey found in the Cyclopedia of Eminent and Representative Men of the Carolinas, Vol. 1, South Carolina:

> It is sufficient to say that on both the paternal and maternal line of his progenitors were some of the bravest and most patriotic defenders of the American colonies in their struggle to free themselves from British domination, and protect themselves from the incursions of the savage aborigines. (That is my ancestors, the indians.)

A good summary of these Canteys is found in the book, Historic Camden, mentioned earlier:

> The Cantey lineage in all of its branches has been conspicuous for its chivalrous, military spirit. It has produced many superb soldiers, and of three noted Confederate Generals two, James Chestnut and Zach. Cantey Deas, were grandsons and another James Cantey, of Ala. a great-grandson, of the John Cantey who settled on Town Creek in 1752.

The first Canty which we know to be our ancestor is James Canty. According to [illegible] family Bible in the possession of his great [illegible] Canty Flanagan, James Canty was born 23 September 1795. The same source lists his marriage date to Elizabeth Ann Nettles as 10 September 1818. In the 1880 census, Scranton, Jackson, MS, his son lists the birth place of both James and Elizabeth Canty as South Carolina. The family Bible records Elizabeth Ann Nettles birthdate as 3 November 1797, and her death date as 9 Jan 1875. (For more information on the Nettles family refer to page .) To the union of James and Elisabeth Ann Nettles Cantey were born nine children. I believe James and his family may have moved to Georgia or Alabama from South Carolina before their descendants came to the Pascagoula area, although I have no proof at this point.

WILLIAM JESSE CANTY came to Pascagoula sometime between 1850 and 1860. In the 1880 census, Scranton, Jackson, MS., W. J., as he was called, gave his birthplace as South Carolina. The family Bible mentioned earlier records his birth 8 July 1827. Nothing is known at this point about his childhood or youth. The next date listed for W. J. in the Bible is his marriage to Rachel A. Wedgeworth, 3 July 1851. In the 1860 Jackson County census, Rachel Wedgeworth Canty gives her birthplace as Mississippi. Six children were born to W. J. and Rachel, one of which died at age nine. The infamous Pascagoula mayor, Frank Canty, was the grandson of this couple. Rachel died 14 August 1867, about six and one-half months after the birth of their sixth child. Whether she died from complications following childbirth or not is not known. W. J. was left with five children ages 11, 9, 6, 2, and 6½ months.

The next date in the family Bible for William Jesse Canty is his second marriage to Nancy Young on 9 September 1869. It is with the descendants of this union that we will be concerned from this point on.

Little is known of Nancy Young at this point. She was born 19 September 1846 and she gives her birthplace in the 1860, 1880, and 1900 Jackson County census as Mississippi. The 1860 gives her father's name as John Young, born in South Carolina about 1815, working in Scranton as a collier(coal miner on a coal ship). Her mother's name is illegible looking almost like James, birthplace Mississippi. In the 1880 census, Nancy doesn't know her parents birthplace. In the 1900 census, she records both parents born in South Carolina.

Methodist Church. On 25 October 1911, Wm.Irving Canty and Lena Augusta Grant were married in Birmingham, AL, uniting two of the oldest and most respected Pascagoula families. (For information on the GRANT line see page)

Lena and Irving raised six children all of which are still living. The Cantys were members of the Methodist church until a move brought them closer to the Baptist church. Transporting a large family any distance was a problem in those days, so the Cantys became Baptists and have remained active in that church for three generations.

Irving worked as a salesman for Standard Oil for twenty years. His oldest daughter, Jessie remembers his beautiful penmanship. His son, Kell tells how his dad used to shave the boys heads every summer. This gave Kell and his brothers a chance to sneak off for an evening swim at Krebs Lake shedding clothes along the way. By the time they got back home their clothes were in place and their burred heads were dry and neither Irving or Lena were the wiser.

Perhaps one of Irving's characteristics which ultimately contributed to his death was the way he worried about his children. In 1945 while two of the boys, Owen and Dick, were training for combat in World War II, Irving's concern and worry about the future and his boys contributed to a fatal heart attack while on the job. Below are two newspaper accounts of his death:

PASCAGOULA NEWS
WM. CANTY DIES - William Irwin Canty, 65, and employee of the Standard Oil Company of Pascagoula for more than 20 years, died suddenly Thursday morning at the Quinn Fisheries Factory, where he had gone to install a gasoline pump. He resided in Pascagoula all of his life and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lena Grant Canty, two daughters, Mrs. Jessie Flanagan and Mrs. Nancy Woodall, sons, Kell Canty and Harold Canty, all of Pascagoula, and sons, Pvt Owen Canty stationed at Fort McClellan, Ala. taking basic training, Sgt. Richard Canty, of the United States Army, overseas [illegible] grandchildren. Funeral services at Fails Funeral Home had not been completed at the time of going to press. Mr. Canty, a member of the First Baptist Church, is survived by his widow, and the following children: Mrs. Mary Woodall and Mrs. Jessie Flanagan, Pascagoula and Kell Canty, Pascagoula; Owen Canty, Camp McClelland, Ala; Richard Canty, Philippines, and Harold Canty, Pascagoula; also by two sisters, Mrs. Annie Todd of Moss Point and Mrs. Florence Jackson, of New Orleans and two brothers, John and Forrest Canty of New Orleans.

Lena survived her husband by twenty years. She continued to live in the family home at the corner of Pascagoula and Joe St. with her youngest son Harold Edward(Bub) until her death 2 December 1965. Lena Augusta Grant Canty lived a long and active life until old age brought on senility.

KELL WILLIAM CANTY was born 11 February 1915 in Pascagoula, Jackson County, MS, and was named after Dr Kell who delivered him. At birth Kell was discovered to have a cleft palate and hairlip. The cleft palate was corrected shortly after birth with methods available at that time. Perhaps lack of funds or adequate methods kept Lena and Irving from pursuing correction of the hairlip. It wasn't until Kell was about age 16 that he went to Charity Hospital in New Orleans, accompanied by his older sister Jessie, and with the help of an aunt underwent surgery to correct his speech impediment. Jessie Canty Flanagan, remembering the experience, says the thing she remembers the most was the strong smell of ether used as the only available anesthetic at that time. Perhaps it was some of that early pioneer spirit that enabled families not only to endure obstacles but to overcome them. Jessie tells of admiration and respect for her mother as she coped with infantile paralysis, birth defects, and a host of illnesses in her children.

Kell was educated at the old Lake School, now converted to a private home at the corner of Kell and Pine Sts. He attended Central School in the 7th grade, located where the Welfare Office now stands. During his high school years he went to Pascagoula High School which stood on the plot of land where Central Elementary is now located.

On 29 July 1938, Kell married Ruby Hilyer Wells, daughter of Riley Eugene and Florence Mae (Jones) Wells of Kreole, Ms. Ruby was born in Kreole, Jackson County, MS, on 11 August 1921.

In 1940 Kell left the Paper Mill where he had been employed to go to work at Ingalls shipyard, a job he kept until a heart attack led to his early retirement in 1968. He has continued to lead an active life, being a "jack of all trades" and can usually be found working on building or repair projects. More often these "projects" are undertaken for his children or neighbors than for himself, showing his generous and congenial nature. Kell has survived a second heart attack, lung surgery, and a serious car accident. Perhaps one of the most important things he has given to future Canty generations are the hours he has spent at the beckoned call of his twelve grandchildren, who think "Papa" hung the moon.

Seven children were born to Kell and Ruby. Six of their children lived to adulthood. The seventh child was a girl, Christina Lynn, who died prior to her birth on 14 August 1959. The other children are listed below along with some "tales" that give some idea of what is needed to raise a large family - a sense of humor and an ability to roll with the punches.

WILLIAM RILEY CANTY was born 20 January 1940 in Pascagoula, Jackson Co., MS. Billy, or Wong as he was called by his classmates, was active in athletics throughout his school years.

Perhaps one of Billy's tensest family moments came when he cashed a War Bond in order to go to New Orleans to hear one of his favorite singers. Unfortunately for Billy, hearing someone sing didn't justify cashing a war bond in his parents eyes.

Being the oldest in a large family has its drawbacks, such as being chauffered on a date with Mary Lou accompanied by four pairs of staring eyes and your mother at the wheel.

After high school Billy attended Furman University, Greenville South Carolina where he quarterbacked for the Purple Hurricanes. His athletic ability was recognized when he played in the 1962 Senior Bowl, Mobile, AL. Following college, Billy remained at Furman in a coaching capacity. Since Furman, he has coached at Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL. University of New Mexico, Albequerque NM, and is currently defensive secondary coach under Steve Sloan at University of Mississippi, Oxford, MS.

and Bay St. Louis high.

Miss Polly Gibbs, associate professor of music at the Louisiana State University, comes to the Coast highly recommended by outstanding teachers in the piano field. Miss Gibbs will divide the day's program into sessions of lectures on private and class piano instruction and the fundamentals of piano techniques. She will, also, act as judge for the student soloists who will enter the solo event.

This piano festival, sponsored by the Mississippi Music Directors, is primarily for students of teachers employed in the schools which are members of the Coast Association. However, all sessions are open to the general public. Teachers and students not actually enrolled in the personnel of the clinic may attend all the lectures, courses, and demonstrations.

It will b necessary for these to inform Mrs. Ainsworth at the Pascagoula high school of their intention to attend the festival and receive all of the necessary information.

The highlight of the festival will be the solo contest. Students rating superior in this festival solo contest will be eligible to enter the state contest which will be held in Jackson. Several state colleges are offering a one-year scholarship to students receiving a superior rating in the state contest.

Demonstrations of class piano for parents and instructors will be given by Miss Gibbs on Saturday at 1:00 p. m.

Mrs. Maxine Haynes Guest Speaker At YWBC Supper Meet

The monthly meeting of the Young Woman's Business Club of Pascagoula took the form of a supper at the Country Club on Monday at 7:30 p. m.

The session was presided over by the recently elected president, Miss Natalie Shelton.

Mrs. Maxine Haynes as guest speaker gave a highly informative and enteresting talk on Jamaica and exhibited her very fine collection of shells.

lege at Augusta, Ga.

Following the program Mrs. C. A. Carrier, president of the society, held a called meeting in which she requested all members to bring clothing for shipment overseas to the next business meeting.

It was also announced that a special program honoring members who have entered the church this year, will be given at the meeting the fourth Monday in March.

The session was dismissed following prayer by Mrs. J. F. Campbell.

Eighty-Fifth Birthday Of Mrs. W. M. Canty

On Sunday, the home of Mrs. W. M. Canty on Krebs avenue was the mecca for relatives and a very large number of friends who called at different hours of the day to extend felicitations and best wishes on her 85th birthday.

Mrs. Canty is the oldest remaining member of the Fernando Gautier family, her brother, Adam, being the only other surviving child of the family though there are eight grandchildren and some great grandchildren.

She was born near Biloxi but when a baby, came to Gautier with her father to live on the property now known as "The Old Place," and owned by her nephew, Hermes Gautier. Consequently she has lived practically all her life in or near Pascagoula and during that time has become a greatly loved and venerated member of one of the pioneer families of the city.

A wealth of flowers were showered on Mrs. Canty who received messages of congratulation from relatives and [illegible] many states, and was also the recipient of a large number of gifts.

Assisting Mrs. Canty in greeting callers, were her daughters, Mrs. B. T. Barnett of Biloxi and Miss Mamie Canty of Pascagoula. Her two sons, Herbert and Frank Canty, were also present.

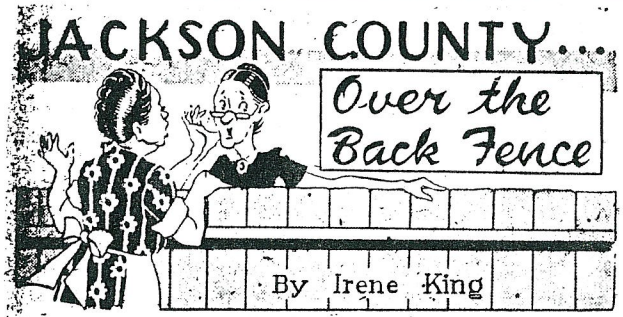
JACKSON COUNTY...



By Irene King

Monday will be Mrs. W. M. Canty's 90th birthday. And in the house on Kell and Frederic Streets in Pascagoula where she has lived most of the time since her marriage 66 years ago, there will be a celebration Sunday.

It will be open house, for nothing but a "coming and going" party could possibly take care of the dozens and dozens of relatives and friends who will offer congratulations to "Grandma Canty."

As one of the 10 children of Fernando Gautier, most of whose descendants live in and around Pascagoula, her family connections are legion.

"I can count my children, grandchildren and great grandchildren," she said, "but after that I wouldn't know how many relatives are living here."

She and the late Mr. Canty had five children, four of whom are still living and making their homes in Pascagoula. Herbert and Miss Mamie live in the big old house of their parents and Frank and Mrs. B. T. Barnett have homes in the 900 block of Buena Vista Street. William died.

There are seven living grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Some of the children want her to sell her house and move into a smaller and more convenient one but she refuses to consider it. Roots it took 66 years to sink can't be pulled overnight and, besides, the bedroom suite which she had as a bride and still uses wouldn't begin to fit into one of those small bedrooms in modern houses.

Born in Tchouticabuffa, a small community taking its name from the river in the west end of the county, she moved with her family when she was three to the family home at Gautier, now known as the "Old Place."

There she and her brothers and sisters were reared, and though few lived to be 90 they were a long-lived family.

Her mother, who was part Choctaw, lived to be 85, at least one sister, Mrs. Eve Pelham, lived to be 90, and there was an aunt who celebrated her 103rd birthday.

Most of Mrs. Canty's brothers and sisters lived here. They were Walter, Eugene, Henry, Adam and Fernando Gautier, Mrs. Ada Thompson, Mrs. Mina O'Donohoe and Mrs. Charles Johnson. Only Adam is still living, making his home in Biloxi.

When Julia Gautier was 24 she and William Canty were married. They took the train from Westside (Gautier) to Scranton (Pascagoula) and set up housekeeping in a little apartment back of the Canty general store, which still stands, although the family no longer operates a store there.

They soon built the present house and accomplished the short move of several yards from apartment to house.

"I don't know what it is to moving," she said. "When we moved they took the stove from the apartment to the house with the dinner cooking right on it."

When Mrs. Canty was asked to what she attributes her long life and vitality, her daughter, Miss Mamie, answered for her mother quickly:

"Early to bed and early to rise and a great love for outdoors where she spent every minute she could."

Mrs. Canty agreed. Best of all she had liked to cook and "work in the dirt." And she made cakes for every special occasion in her wide circle of friends.

Both of these are things of the past now since she broke her hip in 1947.

"Climbed every oak tree in Gautier and then had to fall off a stool no higher than this (contemptuously measuring a foot off the floor) and break my hip," she sniffed.

Though she was 84 at the time and the injury kept her in bed for a year, she rose above the mishap and was back on her feet even though most folks never thought she'd make it.

Now she gets out of a chair and walks about the room without even a cane, although, she has an apparatus on wheels, hand high, to help her on longer excursions.

Working in the dirt may be denied her but she still gets out of doors whenever she can and manages to go in the automobile two or three times a day.

When she was taken to the hospital when she broke her hip marked her first time in an ambulance, first time in a hospital.

She's seen plenty of changes in Pascagoula. Why, when she first moved to her apartment there were no bath tubs and she well remembers running down to a "bath house" on the river.

These were ingenious little houses built in the river, with a wooden floor so the water wouldn't be too deep, where folks went and took a bath. Later the tin tub in the store room supplanted the more rugged method of obtaining cleanliness.

"It was a clean river then," she mused, "before there was all that traffic with motors and oil and stuff."

She remembers, too, taking Dr. Kell over to pay a professional call on her father, riding over with him in a row boat, even though it was just two weeks later that one of her children was born.

She can vouch for the "singing" part of the Singing River, too. When she was a little girl she was standing on the wharf before their home at Gautier when all at once she heard the musical hum of the river.

"Liked to have scared me to death," Mrs. Canty declared, "I sure ran for the house."

FRANK CANTY

Ex-Pas Mayor Dies At Hospital

Frank S. Canty ,former mayor of Pascagoula and an active businessman, died Sunday at the Veteras Administration Hospital in Biloxi following an extended illness. He was 72.

A prominent political and civic leader, Mr. Canty helped organize the Pascagoula Chamber of Commerce and served as its president. He served 10 years on the Pascagoula School Board, seven years as president.

Mr. Canty organized the city's first recreation program in 1949 and served as director of recreation for three years.

His terms as mayor spanned 1937-41, 1949, and 1957-61. During his 1937-41 term, Mr. Canty helped lay the groundwork for the location of Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp., which began its Pascagoula operation in 1939.

He created the Pascagoula Housing Authority in 1949, served as a member of the port commission and was appointed by former Gov. Ross Barnett to the Causeway Study Committee.

Mr. Canty was educated at local schools and Mississippi A&M (now Mississippi State Uni-

Old Canty Store Building To Leave Pascagoula Scene

The landscape on Krebs Avenue near where it jogs to the north and west will be further lowered when wreckers complete taking down another old business house of the past, on which work has begun.

The two-story structure follows into oblivion the former DeJean & Mitchell general store building of the same size which is being demolished on the opposite corner.

Pascagoula's Canty given promotion on Rebels' staff

By The Associated Press

OXFORD, Miss. — Bill Canty, who has coached University of Mississippi running backs for the past three years, has been named offensive coordinator and quarterback coach for the Rebels.

Canty replaces Robert McGraw, who was offensive coordinator and line coach for the past three years. McGraw will continue as offensive line coach.

"We felt we needed to restructure our offense to get more production," coach Billy Brewer said. "From time to time, you want to make changes, either offensively or defensively, or both."

Brewer did not make any changes in the defensive staff.

Canty, a 1958 graduate of Pascagoula High School, is in his eighth season at Ole Miss. He was an all-conference quarterback at Furman University. He coached at Furman, Florida State and New Mexico before coming to Ole Miss.

State briefs

The realigned offensive staff will include: George Smith, wide receivers; David Hines, running backs; James T. Thomas, tight ends; McGraw and Canty. Smith had been quarterback coach and Hines had worked with the wide receivers. Thomas will continue to work with tight ends.

USM cleared by NCAA

HATTIESBURG, Miss. — The University of Southern Mississippi is apparently in good standing with the NCAA.

In a letter to USM President Aubrey Lucas, the NCAA enforcement division said the school had been restored to full rights and priveleges of NCAA membership.

"The university's expressed commitment to compliance with NCAA regulations is appreciated," the letter said.

The NCAA publicly reprimanded and censored Southern Mississippi on Feb. 9, 1985, for its part in the illegal recruiting of former Brandon High School football star Don Palmer.

The original penalty called for a two-year probation and television sanctions.

But based on prompt disciplinary actions taken by USM — including the firing of former assistant coach Jerry Freeman and the freezing of head coach Jim Carmody's salary — the penalty was reduced to one year and the other sanction lifted.

Athletic Director Roland Dale said he was glad that the school's rights were restored.

"The last few years have been long and trying ones for everyone associated with Southern Mississippi athletics," he said. "We now look forward to putting the past behind us."

LINEMAN DROWNS IN WEST RIVER

James M. Johnston of Gulfport Pulled Under Swirling Wafers of Pascagoula.

James M. Johnston, a valued employe of the Mississippi Power Company, was accidentally drowned in West Pascagoula river Monday afternoon about 1 o'clock while engaged in laying a messenger cable across the river.

He and a fellow workman, Tony Tiasso, were in a skiff making repairs to a cable when the boat was capsized by a floating log. Johnston who was an expert swimmer called to his companion to get hold of some debris and he would go after the boat. After taking about ten strokes he disappeared and did not again come to the surface until his body was taken out of the water some distance away about four hours later. He had the reputation of being a good swimmer.

Johnston was born in Scotland and was 28 years old. His wife, Mrs. Agnes Johnston, and two children, one of whom is two years and the other six months old, survive him. He resided in Gulfport. Surviving him beside the wife and children are the father and mother who are in Scotland, two sisters on Long Island, N. Y., and a brother who is at sea.

Mr. Johnston was a member of the Gulfport Lodge of Odd Fellows and members of the order conducted the impressive burial ceremony at the graveside.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

RELIEF FUNDS ARE NEEDED AND ASKED

Flood Sufferers Being Cared for by Red Cross. Contributions Asked from Jackson County Citizens.

The recent floods in Alabama, Georgia and Florida have affected over twenty thousand persons and rendered homeless hundreds of families. Whole towns and villages have been washed away, cattle and stock destroyed, planted crops ruined, causing much suffering and distress, especially in our neighbor state of Alabama.

The American Red Cross as usual has taken charge of the relief work, and announces that a large relief fund is necessary to care for the situation, and is calling for contributions from those who were spared any such loss or suffering. The following telegram was received here by the chairman of the

F. S. Canty Heads New Directorate of Commerce Body

Issues Statement Calling on All Members to Help in Making Bigger City.

Election of F. S. Canty as president of the Chamber of Commerce at the initial meeting of the new board of directors last Friday night was followed by a vigorous statement fro mthe president that he would put his energies behind the organization and expected the full co-operation of the board of directors and the general membership in making the Chamber of Commerce a powerful factor in Pascagoula's advancement.

Mr. Canty has served as vice-president and succeeds H. F. Gautier who has headed the organization for the past two years. Other officers elected are: H. H. Colle, first vice president; A. H. Bixby, second vice president; L. A. Watts, secretary, and J. W. Brumfield. These officers with H. F. Gautier, Lester Hildebrand, J. H. Pelham, W. R. Gulley, H. B. Everitt, Jr., Arthur V. Smith and Arthur Allen, compose the board of directors for the coming year.

The principal discussion at the meeting besides that of electing officers and hearing the new president outline his policies was in regard to the 1929 budget and consideration of a successor to R. L. Roberts, who has resigned effective April 1 as managing secretary. The matter of selecting a secretary was left open, and officers said they would give this consideration before recommending some one for the place.

That the Chamber of Commerce has an important work to perform and that it has already fully justified continued support of the business interests was voiced by members of the board, who pledged their support to the president in renewing memberships and keeping the organization actively working for the numerous opportunities available to the city.

Mr. Canty has prepared a letter to the members which will be mailed in a few days. "This is your Chamber of Commerce, he says," and Pascagoula is your city. If you are all interested in the welfare of both show your interest by subscribing to at least one or more memberships. It will be an investment from which you will derive many benefits, both directly and indirectly."

Officers of the Chamber invite participation in its affairs and constructive advice and criticism of its work and activities.

COMMISSIONER TO IMPROVE ROAD

Kin Watkins Promises to Make Inspection of Moss Point-Lucedale Highway.

Assurance that improvements will be made on the Moss Point-Lucedale highway was given last Tuesday by Kin Watkins of Collins, member of the Highway Commission from the sixth district, when he was here for inspection of roads inundated by flood waters.

Mr. Watkins said that he would probably return to Jackson county next week and would inspect the road in company with members of the board of supervisors and other county officials. Improvements contemplated at this time are graveling low places that become near impassable after heavy rains, an hill sides get "slick" when wet.

Mr. Watkins inspected the Old Spanish Trail near the paper mill and Orange Grove. He was undecided about communicating with the highway engineer in regard to closing the road to heavy busses and trucks when the water fell below the level of the pavement. No such order has been received and the matter is left in the hands of county authorities.

New District Engineer.

J. D. Lewis of Columbia, has been appointed district engineer for the sixth district, to succeed William McKenzie of Hattiesburg, Mr. Watkins said. Mr. McKenzie has held the position for ten years and has been transferred to the Jackson office of the department. The district engineer is charged with looking after maintenance of state roads in his district and works in co-operation with the commissioner.

MUSICALE AND DANCE AT FIREMEN'S HALL, APRIL 5

Many Attractions Offered Those Who Attend. Vocal and Instrumental Numbers and Specialty Dance.

On Friday night, April 5, a musicale with a big dance following, will provide one of the first entertainments of its kind to be offered Pascagoula and vicinity. Francis Gatti, a former citizen of Pascagoula, is busy with George J. Granlund, Chief of the Pascagoula Central Fire Company and Glen Barker, member of the company, making arrangements.

Vocal selections by Mr. Gatti will open the program. He will sing a varied selection, among them some of the latest song successes from the Broadway revues. Mr. Gatti has sung over the radio a number of times, his latest appearance being over WGN, Chicago. He has appeared over WLW, Cincinnati, and last winter over WSMB, New Orleans. During his program over WSMB a large number of Pascagoula made a free delivery city, and it is thought this will be done within the next few months. Incidentally it was stated that on July first Pascagoula will be raised from a third to a second class office.

There being no further matters to come before it, the mass meeting adjourned. It was a harmonious and pleasant meeting, and will result in much good for the city.

W.S.S.

Chronic Constipation.

There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought that condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. A mild laxative tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets affords a gentle movement of the bowels that you hardly realize has been produced by a medicine, and their use is not so likely to be followed by constipation.

W.S.S.

SCHOONER OVERDUE.

The American four-masted schooner Rostellan, in Command of Capt. Albert M. Miller of this city, which left New York, August 31 last, for Roma, South Africa, is one month overdue and no tidings have been heard of the schooner since she left Bermuda, after undergoing repairs occasioned by a storm encountered in the Atlantic. Capt. Miller is a well known navigator and much confidence is placed by the owners of the big vessel in his seamanship. Mrs. Miller and her six children, residents of this city are awaiting a cable from the Captain at any moment, it is not believed by the owners and the Captain's family that the Rostellan is lost as the ship is only seven years old and was stanchly built.

W.S.S.

Mayor F. H. Lewis attended the funeral of Judge Neville at Gulfport Tuesday. The funeral was conducted by Rev. C. F. Newman, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Judge Neville was a member. The funeral was attended by prominent persons from all along the coast and from other sections of the state.

away from Pascagoula, thus taking away from us the population and business that rightfully belong to us.

W.S.S.

The dispatches announce that Biloxi has been decided upon as one of the landing places of the aeroplanes on the aerial mail route that is to be established on the gulf coast between Arcadia, Fla., and New Orleans. Pascagoula should be one of the stopping or landing points, also, so that we may get the benefit of quick mail service to the east. Perhaps if the proper effort were made by our Commercial Club we could secure this concession from the government.

W.S.S.

Howard Canty, who has been in Detroit since he graduated from the High School of this city two years ago returned home Friday night, on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Jim Canty, who is now some better but is still in a precarious condition. Howard has been helping to make Liberty motors for the use of aeroplanes in the great war, and will return to Detroit as soon as his mother's condition will permit him to leave her.

W.S.S.

PERIODIC BILIOUS ATTACKS.

Persons subject to periodic bilious attacks will observe that their appetite fails them just before an attack. That is, they do not really crave food but eat because it is meal time. If they will eat only a light meal and no meat, then take two of Chamberlain's Tablets the attack may be avoided.

MRS. R. M. GRANT.

2-13-1928

Mrs. Eliza Landridge Grant, widow of the late Richard M. Grant, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Oliver Krebs, in Mantou street, on Monday at noon, and was buried the following afternoon in Greenwood cemetery. Rev. W. M. Morris of the Baptist church and Rev. W. I. McInnis of the Presbyterian church conducted the funeral service, which was attended by a large number of friends and relatives of deceased and of the Grant and Krebs families. Many beautiful floral offerings attested the esteem of friends for deceased and sympathy for the bereaved ones.

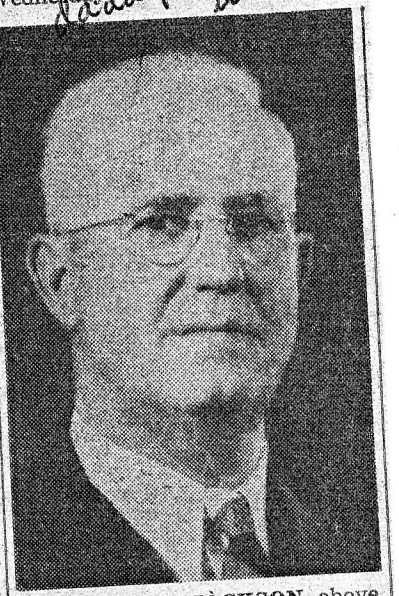
Mrs. Grant was 68 years of age, was born in Pensacola, Fla., but had lived in Pascagoula for the past fifty years, rearing here a large family. Of late years she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Oliver Krebs, in Mantou street. She had been in failing health for several years, but her last illness was only of two weeks duration.

Deceased is survived by one sister, Mrs. Maggie Schmidt, of 200 Dearborn street, Mobile; four sons, Forest E., Harold, Julius and William Grant; three daughters, Mrs. W. I. Canty, Mrs. Oliver Krebs and Mrs. M. E. Crane, all of this city; a number of grandchildren, and a large connection of other relatives in this city and at other points along the Gulf Coast.

This paper joins the many friends of the family in expressions of sympahty to the bereaved relatives in the loss of the earthly companionship of this good woman.

Uncle Will

Wednesday afternoon, February 13,



WILLIAM B. JACKSON, above, section foreman in Gulfport for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, was presented a gold button, studded with ten diamonds, by D. E. Beatty, superintendent, Mobile, on February 6 in the presence of friends and fellow employes. Mr. Beatty complimented Mr. Jackson on his 50 years of loyal and continuous service.

Mr. Jackson, born November 2, 1878 in Greenbrier, Tenn., entered service with the L&N in February of 1895 at Pascagoula. He was promoted to the position of section foreman on April 6, 1900, and was transferred to Gulfport in 1932. He has recently purchased the property at 1920 22nd avenue where he lives with his wife, the former Miss Belle Saucier. Mr. Jackson has six sons by a former marriage, two of them served in the armed forces for the duration and have returned home.

Mr. Jackson is in receipt of a letter signed by W. E. Smith, vice president and general manager of the railroad, congratulating him on his service record.

MRS. CLEMENCE KREBS CANTY

The community was deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Clemence Krebs Canty, wife of Forrest E. Canty, at the county hospital Thursday morning at 12:15 o'clock. Mrs. Canty was taken seriously ill with double pneumonia at her home last week and was carried to the hospital Saturday.

Mrs. Canty was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Krebs. She was 43 years old. In March, 1912, she married Forrest E. Canty. She was the mother of seven children, to whom her whole life was devoted, taking care of them and sending them to school in the face of sometime adverse circumstances. She will be sorely missed by them as well as a large connection of relatives and a warm circle of friends.

Services will be held at her home on Lincoln avenue Friday morning before going to Our Lady of Victories Church where Reguiem Mass will be said by Rev. Father P. J. Quinn at 10 o'clock, with interment in Greenwood cemetery.

Besides her husband and seven children she is survived by her mother, Mrs. James J. Kreb; three brothers, Auguste Krebs of Gulfport; Eugene J. Krebs, Pascagoula; Raoul G. Krebs, Hattiesburg; seven sisters, Mesdames C. S. Browne, Edwin Bowden, Placide Walker; Misses Olivia and Esther Krebs of Pascagoula; Mrs. Frank Moore of Bonita, La., and Mrs. Roy Epperson, Mobile.

The Chronicle-Star joins others in extending deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

NOTES ON JOSIAH CANTEY OF ST. MARK'S PARISH AND HIS CHILRDREN

Josiah Cantey was the son of William Cantey and his wife Arabella Oldys (Records of the Secretary of the Province 1707-1711, pp. 6 & 7, SC Arch.; Compiled Cantey Records, SC Historical Society, handwritten-probably Mabel Webber, source given as Conv. Bk II, p. 121).
Josiah was married at least twice. Josiah Cantey and Elizabeth Boswood, spinster, married 10-3-1731 (St. Andrew's Parish Register). Elizabeth Cantey was buried 10-2-1736 (Ibid.). On 2-21-1752 Josiah's wife was Susanna when they sold 287 1/2 acres in St. Andrew's Parish (Compiled Cantey Records, op. cit., sourced as Conv. Bk KK, 242). Josiah was on the Jury List for Prince Frederick Parish in 1737 (Mary B. Warren, South Carolina Jury Lists 1718 Through 1783). St. Mark's Parish was made from Prince Frederick Parish.
Josiah Cantey of St. Mark's Parish died testate between 10-8-1773 and 12-17-1773 naming children but no wife; Executors were son William Cantey and Richard Richardson Sr. Esq.; Witnesses were Brinkley Corbett, James Noble, Dorothy Corbett, her mark.

Children of Josiah Cantey:

1. WILLIAM CANTEY

William, son of Josiah and Elizabeth Cantey, was born 11-6-1732 (St. Andrew's Register). He was married to his first wife Rebecca by 1-20-1760 when their son Josiah was born (Giessendanner Records, Church of the Redeemer, Orangeburg, SC). Rebecca is an unproven candidate for a daughter of James and Rebecca Brunson of St. Mark's Parish. "Rebekah" was alive on 10-1-1770 when she and William were witnesses for his father Josiah (Chas. Conv. Bk 3R, pp. 461-6). William was deceased intestate by 1-9-1787 when his son Josiah and widow Martha applied for the Administration of his estate (Camden District Administrations Apt. 13, pkg 434). Martha was the daughter of [Thomas and] Mary Maples; her children by William Cantey were named in Mrs. Mary Maples' Will (Sumter, Bundle 62, pkg 10).

2. ANNE CANTEY

Anne, daughter of Josiah and Elizabeth Cantey, was Baptized 7-31-1734 (St. Andrew's Register). She was probably the same unmarried daughter Ann in Josiah's Will whose care was entrusted to his son William.

3. GEORGE CANTEY

George, son of Josiah and Elizabeth Cantey, was Baptized 10-2-1736; on the same day Josiah's wife Elizabeth was buried (St. Andrew's Register). He was not mentioned in Josiah's Will and nothing more has been found for him. He was Josiah's last child found in the register of St. Andrew's Church.

4. ELIZABETH CANTEY

As Elizabeth Brunson, she was called daughter in Josiah's Will dated 10-8-1773. James and Elizabeth Brunson were the sponsors when William and Rebecca Cantey's son Josiah was Baptized on 3-24-1760 (Giessendanner, op. cit.). James was the son of James and Rebecca Brunson of St. Mark's Parish (South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine Vol. XLIV, p. 107). By the 1800 Census, James and Elizabeth had moved from Sumter District to Beaufort District, SC. Apparently, James was dead on 10-22-1811 when Elizabeth testified that he had sold land to Abner Broadway about 1775 (Sumter Conv. CC, 477). Since Wilhelm Von Hacke's copy of this conveyance did not say that Elizabeth Brunson was of Beaufort, it is assumed, correctly or incorrectly, that she was in Sumter District on that date.

Conty 181

5. MARTHA CANTEY

As Martha Richbourgh, she was called daughter in Josiah's Will. Martha was alive on 2-2-1810 when she and her husband Henry Richbourg were released as Trustees for her sister Hester/Esther Cantey Richbourg because "we are now getting old" (Sumter Conv. CC, 262). This was the last found for Martha. Henry was named first in the list of sons in the Will of Claudius Richbourg (Sumter Wills AA, 209). Henry Richbourg Sr. of Clarendon was alive on 10-17-1810 when he sold land on Big Branch of Jack's Creek (Sumter Conv. D, 69). Robert D. Bass, Swamp Fox, p. 258: "Colonel Henry Richbourg, a staunch Whig, turned Loyalist ..... Cornwallis thought that at last he had found a leader as capable as Marion."

6. COMFORT CANTEY

As Comfort Green, she was called daughter in Josiah's Will dated 10-8-1773. Comfort was married to Moses Green at least by 3-2/3-1772 when they, of St. Mark's Parish, sold 100 acres to Richard Richardson Jr. (Sumter Conv. C, 267). It is not known when Comfort died, but Moses remarried as evidenced by the Will of his daughter Martha Green Benbow in which she left to her half- brother Moses Green (Sumter Probate Bundle 118, 14). Moses' was deceased by 7-23-1803 when his widow Margaret gave to her son Moses Thompson Green (Sumter Conv. AA, 234). She remarried to Robert Bowman (Sumter Conv. F, 594).

7. SUSANNA CANTEY

As Susanna Dennis, she was called daughter in Josiah's Will. Richard Gower Dennis and wife Susannah sold on 1-3-1801 to Jesse White 33 acres on Big Branch of Jack's Creek (Sumter Conv. B, 103). The application for a Rev. War pension of John Richbourg stated that when he served as a 2nd Lt. in a Militia company commanded by Capt. William Cantey, Richard G. Dennis was 1st Lt. (#S.18175, Nat'l Arch.).

8. REBECCA CANTEY

As Rebecca Gale, she was called daughter in Josiah's Will. Josiah Gayle Jr. was a Private in Capt. Matthew Singleton's Co. of Horse, St. Mark's Parish on 8-26-1775 (Xerox copy of original company roll). Among the Americans hanged by the British after Gates' defeat, 8-16-1780, was said to have been Josiah Gayle (Kirkland and Kennedy, Historic Camden Vol. I, 205). 1794 & 1795, John Harvin and wife Rebecca, late Rebecca Gayle, Admx. of Josiah Gayle Jr., dec'd (Camden, Judgement D, 212). The Will of Josiah Gayle [Sr.] dated 12-17-1794: to son-in-law John Harvin and daughter-in-law Rebecca Harvin 5 shillings; to my 3 grandchildren, children of son Josiah Gayle: Sarah Rembert, Richard & Josiah Gayle, 5 shillings each; to my grandson John Harvin, son of my daughter Mary ... (Sumter Wills AA, 459). From the above, Rebecca had
